OLD RESIDENT DEAD.

Mr. Henry Hammell, one of the oldest residents of Newton Centre, died last week Thursday, after an illness of several years. Mr. Hammell was a native of Standorf, Germany, and was 66 years of age. He has resided at the same place for the past 40 years. He leaves a widow, formerly Miss Elizabeth D. Haffermehl, two sons, Charles H. and George E., and one daughter, Miss Annie E. Hammell. Mr. Hammell came to this country as a boy and after graduating from the public schools learned the trade of a painter.

Funeral services were held from his late residence on Parker street, Sunday afternoon, in charge of Rev. E. M. Noyes of the First church and the interment was at Newton cemetery.

LABOR DAY PICNIC.

Many new and novel attractions will be introduced at Fr. Callanan's Labor Day picnic which is to be held Monday on the spacious grounds opposite St. John's church in Newton Lower Falls.

The principle attraction of the picnic and one which is bound to attract thousands of people is the wrestling match which has been arranged between Farmer Burns of Worcester, the 130 pound champion of America, and Young Americus of New York. It was only after a big inducement that the bout between the two men was arranged and George V. Touhey, the greatest wrestling authority in the country and a well known sporting writer has agreed to referee the match.

Another attraction which is bound to be of local interest from the number of local entries received is the amateur vaudeville. Prizes aggregating $50 have been offered to the performers scoring the biggest hit. So that there can be no favoritism shown it has been decided that the audience should judge the contest.

The tug of war contests for a purse of $50 are also attracting a great deal of attention owing to the intense rivalry between the teams. Six teams have entered the contest.

In an attempt to make this picnic a much larger success than on former years no expense has been spared by the committee in charge.

Hundreds of little electric lights will turn the grounds into a veritable fairyland in the evening.

Near the main entrance is the midway with hundreds of attractions to interest both the young and the old. Here may be found all sorts of games for ladies and girls and men and boys and a good time is promised to everyone.

The huge rattlesnake which was captured alive a short time ago by Fr. Callanan in the mountains of Kentucky will be on exhibition.

A big dancing pavillion has been erected and dancing will be enjoyed both in the afternoon and evening.

Among the regular attractions will be the African Dodgers, shooting galleries, dart gun shooting, cane boards, Aunt Sally, striking machines, pall games and hundreds of others.

The usual tables which are conducted by the ladies of the parish will contain many delightful home made dishes and a good meal can be secured at a small cost.

Fr. Callanan's picnic is undoubtedly the best place on Labor Day where the whole family can enjoy an outing at a small cost and the present indications are that all records for attendance will be broken.

All through car on the South Framingham-Newton line pass the grounds.

MR. SYLVESTER APPOINTED.

Mr. Carl A. Sylvester, at present the assistant general manager of the Boston Suburban Electric Companies, has been appointed to the position of General Manager, to succeed Mr. M. C. Brush on October 1, 1909. Mr. Sylvester is a resident of Newton Centre and is thirty years of age. He was educated in the Newton schools and is a graduate of Harvard in the class of 1902. He started in railway work as pitman in the car barn after receiving his degree from college and has been promoted thru various positions in all departments, serving as assistant to Mr. Brush since 1906.

As General Manager of the Boston Suburban Companies Mr. Sylvester will be in charge of the Middlesex and Boston, the Newton & Boston, the Lexington and Boston Street Railway companies, the Suburban Mfg. Co. and the Norumbega Park Company.

AUTOMOBILE DEMOLISHED.

Two men were badly hurt and two young women escaped uninjured when an automobile, owned by F. P. Pratt of Newton, was upset and demolished Monday by a wheel catching in a street car track while turning a corner at the railway bridge between Onset and Buzzards Bay. The chauffeur, Joseph Doherty, had his head cut open and was badly bruised, while John Hayes of Brockton, who has a summer home at Buzzards Bay, was badly cut about the head and shaken up. His daughter and granddaughter, who were in the car with him, escaped unhurt.

Mr. Pratt, owner of the car, was not in it at the time. John Doherty and Hayes, it is expected will recover.

A TELEPHONE TRAGEDY.

Complaints have occasionally come to the police in this city that telephone pay stations situated in more or less public places have been robbed of nickels and dimes, but one evening this week there was an unusual complaint, when a young woman got away with 60 cents worth of telephoning right in police headquarters building.

The young woman deposited a dime in the pay station just inside the front entrance of the building and at 7:20 began conversation. Lieut. Harrison and House Officer Kimball heard her telephoning for a long time, stopping occasionally to give vent to a series of chuckles and hearty laughter.

At 7:45 Patrolman Kimball looked at the clock and remarked that the young woman seemed to be having a pleasant conversation but that she would have rather heavy "toll" charges to pay. At 8 o'clock Lieut. Harrison was taking the official reading of the thermometer when the bell of the pay station telephone rang vigorously.

"Has the party who has been telephoning for a long time gone?" asked central.

"She has," was the reply.

"Who was she?"

"Don't know her here."

"Well, she owes 60 cents toll charges."

When central had requested her to deposit the money in the slot arrangement provided for that purpose she had placed the receiver on the hook and walked out of the police station.

I WANT TO GO TO MORROW.

I started on a journey just about a week ago. For the little town of Morrow in the State of Ohio; I never was a traveller and really didn't know. That Morrow had been ridiculed a century or so. I went down to the depot for my ticket and applied. For tips regarding Morrow, not expecting to be guided; Said I, "My friend, I want to go to Morrow and return. Not later than tomorrow, for I haven't time to burn."

Said he to me, "Now let me see if I have heard you right; You want to go to Morrow and come back tomorrow night; To go from here to Morrow and return is quite a way. You should have gone to Morrow yesterday and back today. For if you started yesterday to Morrow, don't you see, You could have got to Morrow and returned today at three; The train that started yesterday, now understand me right, Today it gets to Morrow and returns tomorrow night."

Said I: "My boy, it seems to me you're talking through your hat. Is there a town named Morrow on your line, now tell me that?" "There is," said he, "And take from me a quiet little tip. To go from here to Morrow is a four-teen-hour trip. The train that goes to Morrow leaves today eight thirty-five. Half after ten tomorrow is the time it should arrive: Now if from here to Morrow is a four-teen-hour jump, Can you go today to Morrow and come back today, you chump?"

Said I: "I want to go to Morrow, can I go today? And get to Morrow by tonight if there is no delay?" "Well, well," said he, "explain to me and I've no more to say, Can you go anywhere tomorrow and come back today? For if today you get to Morrow, surely you'll agree. You should have started not today, but yesterday, you see; So, if you start to Morrow, leaving here today, you flat, You won't get in to Morrow till the day that follows that."

Now if you start today to Morrow, it's a cinch you'll land Tomorrow in to Morrow, not today, you understand; For the train today to Morrow, if the schedule is right, Will get you into Morrow by about tomorrow night. Said I, "I guess you know it all, but kindly let me say, How can I go to Morrow if I leave the town today?" Said he, "You cannot go to Morrow any more today, For the train that goes to Morrow is a mile upon its way."

FINALE.

I was so disappointed I was mad enough to swear, The train had gone to Morrow and had left me standing there; The man was right in telling me I was a howling jay, I didn't go to Morrow, so I guess I'll go today.

WHAT A SAMPLE OF COFFEE DID.

The Editor, who is also Business Manager, likes to find out all he can about his advertisers. One day he took home two or three tiny sample cans of coffee.

"Here's a present for you," said he to the stenographer.

"That looks like partiality," said the bookkeeper.

"No it isn't," said the Editor, "for here's one for you."

There was a little disappointment when the two young women examined the packages, for each of them had been looking for candy, not coffee. However they carried the packages home.

A few days after the bookkeeper began: "My mother says that White House Coffee you gave me is the best coffee she ever drank, and she wants to know where she can get it. Her grocer doesn't have it."

But another grocer did have it and as a result he has not only sold her coffee for more than a year, but a lot of other goods.

The stenographer had about the same verdict with practically the same result, while the friends of both families as they come and go are asking: "Where did you get this coffee?" As for the Editor's grocer, he was wise enough to put White House Coffee on his shelves at the first call, and reports it as growing in demand, and always satisfactory.

APPEAL TO MOTHERS TO END THE FOURTH OF JULY SLAUGHTER.

By Asenath Carver Coolidge.

How simple the remedy for the sinful and senseless Fourth of July slaughter which kills and maims from four to six thousand, mostly "small boys," yearly! How quickly it might be ended if every parent in the land would rise up in their might and say it shall not be! Doubtless the mother parents alone would soon end it if they could be led to look at it in the right way and use the requisite resolution to begin with; but the fathers, teachers and preachers ought to help and it would be well for the overburdened mothers to insist on having their help.

It may look like a huge task at first glance; but once make it a matter between the mother and her children and it is greatly simplified. No sane mother would allow her babe to thrust its hand into the blazing fire however much it might wish or cry to do so. She would seize the little outstretched hand with a gentle force. She would cover it with kisses and make the child understand how beautiful and precious it is, and in case of continued struggle to handle the fire, she would put something else, prettier and brighter into the rebellious hand—something that it could shake, rattle, toss about and spend its growing energy upon without injury to itself or others.

As the mother naturally treats the babe in her lap so will she manage if she is a wise mother, the child at her knee, or the so-called "small boy," who is absolutely aching to spend his superabundant energies, in trying experiments on all sorts of things, some of which are not dangerous and demoralizing and many of which are both. She should give him a full supply of things that will teach him right and righteous lessons and rigidly discard those that teach wrong and immoral lessons and that are dangerous to handle, both for himself and others and the home which is so dear to the family. To do this efficiently she must keep abreast with the so-called improvements of the times. She must know that the old fashioned freeracker, the tiny pistol and torpedo with which children were permitted to celebrate when she was a child and which were chiefly imported and used in small quantities are no longer the same. That the small Chinese freeracker has become a big cannon-cracker, the tiny pistol a full grown one, the harmless torpedo a dangerous bomb-like concern and that a box of noise-makers as large as the boy wants is packed with enough dynamite to wreck the town! She must also know that the manufacture of these dangerous playthings has become an important home industry and that legions of devils called agents, are sent forth to all the northern cities and villages however small, to sell or deposit these nefarious wares and tell infamous lies about the perfect safety with which they can be used, even by "babes and sucklings."

Selfish and absurd as the efforts of the manufacturer and agent are, no little resolution is required to fight them down. Some of the boys' fathers are agents for the villainous things and some of them are manufacturers or their employees who will set up the scare-crow of "no fireworks for the boys' hand, no food for the boys' mouth."

This scare-crow of no food is intended to scare badly but it will not scare any decently well-informed mother in this land of plenty. She will go right on refusing to buy fireworks for her children or to let anybody else do so. This has already been proven and with such good effect that the conclusion is evident and this is the conclusion. If all the mothers in the country or even a large proportion of them should take firm ground with their children on the fireworks' question, the manufacture would be stopped. The hypocritical agent who weeps with the parents who lost their boys last year by the fireworks he sold them, would cease to rage up and down the land. The fathers would seek and find safer and better employment and the precious small boy would be saved from death or disfigurement worse than death, and from the moral perversion that comes from the teaching of treacherous militarism under cover of patriotism and from the unchristly and persistent glorification of this nation over a sister nation's defeat.

BETWEEN TWO REBELLIONS.

By Asenath Carver Coolidge.

This is the story of a southern girl's experience in the north after the fratricidal war in which her father and his northern brother had killed each other. As soon as their father received the terrible tidings he went south and brought home his dead sons and the only living member of the southern son's family—a beautiful young girl. His home already

Park Theatre—When produced in Chicago last Spring, there was not one newspaper of the eight big dailies published in that city, but what accorded the highest praise to Paul Wiltach's play, "Keegan's Pal" now announced as the opening attraction of the Park Theatre, Boston, on Thursday evening, Sept. 2. Emmett Corrigan, the star, has done much important work on the dramatic stage. In both "Ben Hur" and "The Prince of India" his characterizations were so remarkably well done that his right to a place in the foremost rank of America's leading actors was convincingly established. In "Keegan's Pal" the role of the Honorable Peter Rieburn gives him the fullest opportunity to display his wonderful diction and exquisite suavity of touch. The play itself, which could rightly be termed a "drawing-room detective story" is a drama of pulse and brains, of the brilliant class in which are enrolled "The Third Degree," "The Lion and the Mouse," and "The Thief." Mr. Wiltach's dramatic story strikes life with a hard and living punch and its telling holds the audience keenly interested and makes the onlookers feel and be moved, all of which shows that the author has driven true to the heart of the public taste in the year 1909. Mr. Corrigan's support is the most able and distinguished which surrounds any star this season. Among his leading players are beautiful Ethel Clayton, a young girl who captured New York last year in Dixey's support by her artless charm in "The Devil;" Hattie Russell, a sister of Ada Rehan, who rarely acts outside New York; Maud Burns, a young artist who acted four consecutive seasons in San Francisco but makes her New York debut in "Keegan's Pal"; Harry Harwood who for nine years created leading roles with John Drew at the Empire Theatre and during the past two years has acted continuously a leading role in "The Man of the Hour" at the Savoy; John A. Butler, an American boy of 22 who is a great favorite in London where he created the leading boy parts in "The College Widow" and "The Three of Us" and returned to New York to succeed Douglas Fairbanks in "The Man of the Hour" and Bertram Marburgh, an English artist who made a great hit in "Keegan's Pal" in Chicago last Spring and remains in America to play his original part in New York this season. There will be matinees Wednesdays and Saturdays.

NORUMBEGA PARK.

Norumbega Park has never had a more prosperous season than the present summer. At the present rate the total attendance for the season and the receipts from all sources, notwithstanding the fire which wiped out the theatre and left the park without its popular attraction for a period of about ten days, will be far in excess of any previous season at this picturesque resort on the beautiful Charles. The management has studied carefully from year to year the tastes of its ever increasing patronage and has sought to meet their wishes in every way that it seemed wise for the good of all concerned. Park managers have come to learn from experience that each park must have a certain individuality acquired from studying the tastes of its patrons. Just because a Luna Park is successful at Coney Island is no reason why the same would meet with approval at Auburndale on the Charles. In fact, a place like Luna Park would probably go out of business before the first season was over. The great success of Norumbega Park today is the result of a gradual growth, and this resort has so much individuality about it that there is not another like it in this country. The attractions and amusements are adapted to some extent to the location and surroundings of the park. Few places in the country have such fine appointments for their collection of wild and domestic animals. Norumbega's Zoological Garden is an ideal treat to the lover of animals. Each specimen is placed in surroundings that as nearly as possible approach the conditions they would find in their native haunts. None are penned up in stuffy enclosures with scarcely room to turn around. In the open air theatre for the coming week, beginning Monday afternoon, August 30, there will be another big vaudeville that bids fair to even outshine the exceptional programs of the past two weeks. For full list of acts see the Boston Sunday papers.

Orpheum Theatre—After a remarkably successful summer season Manager Morrison announces for his farewell week that delightful comedy drama "Divorcens," the play made famous by Grace George and written by Victoria Sardon. "Divorcens" is a social play dealing in one of the perplexing social questions of the day, that of divorce. This place while exciting the disgusting side of divorce proceedings also teaches a moral lesson beneficial to all. It contains crisp lines startling situations and all together is marked throughout with typical French humor. "Divorcens" has never before been played by any stock company in Boston and for that week the farewell week at the Orpheum Theatre promises to be a memorable one. Receptions are planned for the Morrison players during the week winding up with a monstrous reception to all of them Saturday night. Already there is a brisk demand for seats as few patrons will care to miss the opportunity of saying good bye to their favorites.

Gaiety Theatre, Boston—The splendid policy of high toned burlesque so successfully inaugurated and maintained last season at this beautiful theatre, is being kept up here again; in fact it might be truthfully said that never has the style and character of the entertainments here reached so high a pinnacle as right at the present time. The Gaiety can without challenge stand as the leading exponent of burlesque and extravaganza in the city of Boston. No further proof would be needed than a visit here this week, where the "Merry Whirl" Co. is entertaining vast crowds at every performance. The entire show can be summed up in one line: "A $2.00 show at popular prices." The same can be said of the "Star & Garter" Co., which is to play here Labor Day week. This is one of the most pretentious productions in burlesque; there are over fifty people in the cast. The title of the piece, "The Fantastic World," is in two acts and eleven scenes, all replete with superb musical numbers and clever comedy situations. Any written discussion of this show would give but an imperfect idea of its splendor and beauty. It must be seen to be appreciated. The Gaiety continues to give daily matinees as heretofore, and the same popular scale of prices is in vogue as of last season.

Castle Square Theatre—For his second week at the Castle Square Theatre, beginning next Monday, Mr. Craig announces another play new to Boston. It is "Glittering Gloria," and it is a roaring farce that has well been called "the funniest of all plays." Written by C. M. S. McClellan, who is best known as the author of "Leah Kleschna," its humor and its plot are of the sort that leave no time for anything but laughter, and the heartiest of laughter. Gloria, who gives her title to the play, is the much photographed chorus girl of the Utopia Theatre in London, and her experiences as the result of receiving a $25,000 diamond necklace as a present, starts the fun and the mirth. Incident piles upon incident, joke upon joke, funny situation upon funny situation, and the climax comes when the comedians are locked up in a trunk and carried off to the railroad station, there supposedly to remain for the longer part of a day. All in all, Mr. Craig could not have chosen a better or more laughable play for his second production of the new season at the Castle Square.

Grand Opera House—Next week's attraction at the Boston Grand Opera House will be "The Girl and The Detective," which will open its engagement with a special matinee Monday, Labor Day. It is a new comedy-drama in four acts written by J. Searle Dawley and Chas. E. Blaney, especially for Miss Florence Elliott who will be seen as Tykie, a wail. "The Girl and The Detective" deals with life as it is today in all large cities. The heroine is an orphan, a wail of the streets detained in an orphan asylum by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. She escapes and gets into many complications through being an unwilling witness of one of the big crimes of the day. Mr. Chas. E. Blaney, in producing the play, has spared no expense to make it notable in every respect. The scenes of the play are laid on Long Island, New Jersey and in New York City. Especially realistic is set to be the rolling and stamping mill in operation and a big drop forge. Mr. Blaney has surrounded Miss Elliott with a company of merit. Matinees will be given as usual Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday and an extra matinee Monday, Labor Day.

NEWTON Y. M. C. A.

After Labor Day the rooms will be open from nine in the morning until ten at night. Now is the time to make arrangements about the season's membership and full particulars will be given to any who may be interested. Some of the things which can be announced at this time are a series of three lectures by Dr. Lyman B.
Sperry, of Oberlin, Ohio, and a series of talks on "Health" and "First Aid,"
by Wm. Macpherson, the Physical Director. Classes in the Gymnasium will begin the latter part of September.

Messrs. Newcomb, Josselyn and Jo-hannott were the representatives from Newton on the last fishing trip on the "Letter D." All report a good time.
Mr. Newcomb's fish had to be cut in three pieces before it could be brought home. The next trip will be on Sept.
23rd. Any one wishing to go can get directions at the Association office.

The baseball team finished the month with a clean record, having played and won four games.

The game Saturday was played on Clifton Field and was fast and exciting throughout the ten innings. The Association team out-batted the Long-woods but were unable to hit when men were on bases. Thomas pitched a very good game, striking out eleven men and giving no passes. The winning run was made with 2 out, Lon-organ making a great slide for the plate after running from second on a single by Frazer.

The team plays the Stanleys Saturday for the third time. The Stanleys having lost the first two, are out to win this one. On Labor Day they play Boston Y. M. C. A. a rubber game, each team having won one.

POLICE NOTES.

The Newton police are looking for an owner for a suit-case found in the woods off Kirkstall road. The case is a large one of very expensive make and was filled with ladies' underwear and furs. The lock was forced open and the initials M. L. S. were partly scratched off with a stone. The articles found in the bag were of very fine material. It is thought that the case was stolen and the thief, finding the contents of no value to him, threw it away.

Chief Mitchell is enjoying his vacation at Colchester, Vt.

Inspector F. B. Fletcher returned
this week from Stoneham, Mass.

Sergeant Clay spent his vacation
in a trip to New York and Washington.

Miss Kathleen Nolan has returned from a vacation at York Beach.

Jeremiah H. Butler was fined $10 in court Thursday for assault on Officer Marriner last Sunday. Officer Marriner had called upon Butler to assist him with a drunk, and his refusal to follow Marriner's instructions led first to words and then to blows.
Butler appealed.

Attention is called to Henry H.
Read's ad. of low cost houses in New-

NEWTON CENTRE PLAYGROUND
NOTES.

The N. C. A. A. furnished the crowd with another good Saturday ball game last week, and defeated the Wellesleys 9 to 7. It looked easy for the home team at first, but when the score stood 6 to 1 the visitors went round their batting list in one inning and left the score 7 to 6. The final score was in favor of Newton Centre was due to good base running and very steady work by the battery Gaw and Yates.

The tennis cups which Mr. E. Ray Sperry has presented through the Playground and Social Service League
have been on exhibition in Hahn's window this week and have served to increase the interest in the first annual tournament, which starts next week. Now that there are five courts on the Playground there seems to be plenty of opportunity for every one to practice and if all cannot have their names on the cup, a large entry list will make the winners work for the initial honor.

The city appropriation allowed
$1,100.00 for the Newton Centre Playground this year, and with the completion of the grading around the new tennis courts, this amount has been practically all expended on lines suggested to the City Park Department by the Playground League. With the steady increase of interest in parks and playgrounds, next year's appropriation ought to be even more generous and many contemplated plans be carried forward. The possibilities of thirty acres as a town center are fascinating.

Owing to the absence of many players who wish to enter the Fall Tennis Tournament on the Playground, the date of the Tournament has been postponed to Saturday, September 11, at ten o'clock in the morning. All entries must be made to Mr. Howard,
the Director, before six o'clock Friday evening, September 10. The tournaments will be in charge of a committee consisting of Miss Catherine Mears, Miss Elsie Harrington, Hughes Richardson, Langdon Pratt, and George F. Wales, Chairman.

All Newton Base Ball League resulted in three teams being tied for 1st place. These teams, Newtonville, Newton Centre and Davenport, are now playing off the tie. Thursday
Newton Centre defeated Newtonville, 7-2. The fielding and batting of Harrington of the Newton Centre team was the feature. On Saturday morning Newton Centre will play the Dap-evonports and the league will close with a game between Newtonville and Davenport on Labor Day.

Entries for the All Around Championship of Newton are now coming in and a successful meet is assured.
All entries should be made with Wm.
N. Howard, Playground Director, Newton Centre. The cups for the meet are now on exhibition at Newton Corner. The order of events will be as follows:

100-yard dash, trial heats.
Running high jump.
100-yard dash, finals.
Boys' 220-yard dash.
Shot put.
Boys' running high jump.
Running broad jump.
Boys' running broad jump.
1-mile run.

MRS. PRIEST DEAD.

Mrs. Bridget Priest, widow of the late John Priest, died last Tuesday at her home on Derby street at the age of 70 years. Mrs. Priest was well known in West Newton which has been her home for the past 45 years.
She is survived by four sons, Thomas of Arlington, James H., Frank J. and John Priest, of West Newton, and three daughters, Mrs. Mary McMahon, Mrs. Winifred Saunders and Miss Nellie Priest, all of West Newton. Funeral services were held Thursday morning at St. Bernard's church, with solemn requiem mass, Rev. F. J. Cro-nlin, celebrant, Rev. E. J. Costello of Campello, deacon, and Rev. C. J. Galligan, sub-deacon. The bearers were Messrs. John Hargredon, August Hargedon, James McMahon of West Newton, Hargredon of Boston and Frank Priest of Arlington. The services were largely attended and there were many beautiful floral tributes. Interment was at Calvary cemetery, Waltham.

No heat is better than hot water.
No heater is so good as the "WIN-CHESTER." If you want steam, the "WINCHESTER" steam heater is still far ahead of its rivals. Its construction and quality are beyond reproach.

COLLISION.

An automobile and a motor cycle
collided at the corner of Washington and Church streets, Tuesday morning.

The motor cycle was ridden by John Kelley of Watertown, an employee of the Newton & Watertown Gas Light Co. He suffered severe cuts and bruises. The motor cycle was smashed and so great was the force of the collision that the inch-thick steering bar on the automobile was bent badly, while one of the headlights and a mudguard were broken.

E. S. Ensign, owner and driver of the automobile, was crossing the railroad bridge at Church street and Kelley was operating his machine on the right side of Washington street.
The high side of the bridge cut off
his view of the approaching automobile.

Mr. Ensign had applied his emergency brake and reversed his engine
so that he gently lessened the shock of the collision.

MUST VACATE.

H. A. Farnsworth, the veteran shoe dealer, must soon vacate the store in which he has done business for 23 years, and he therefore announces a sacrifice sale, in which every pair of shoes in the store will be marked down, many at less than cost and some at less than half price. Those who are acquainted with Mr. Farnsworth know that no merchant in the city has a higher reputation for integrity, and that when he announces a sacrifice sale he will keep faith
with the public. See advt.

That baseball is the American game, that it is a game with which every one is familiar and over which enthusiasm can be aroused, was never better demonstrated than one afternoon recently in New York, when Cecil Lean, who had long been the star of the Kirke La Salle Company, sat on the back of a davenport. In his shirt sleeves and his coat over his arm and sang a song called "The Fan." This happened in a New York theatre and before the chorus was finished crowded houses were shouting like wild. Lean with the song caught the spirit of the ball game and every move he made was a picture.

He woke up next morning to find himself the most talked about comedian in New York. Mr. Lean will be the star attraction at Keith's next week, coming with Florence Holbrook who has been associated with him as stellar features of "The Soul Kiss."
They have an act that will certainly be talked about as there has nothing clever been presented in vaudeville in recent years. Another big feature will be Mr. Fred Lindsay, the gentleman whip expert from Australia
who has done such startling things
as to cut the ashes off the end of a cigar with a lasso. Violet Black and Company will be seen in a sketch;
Byron and Langdon will appear in
"The Dude Detective." The Three Bohemians are European minstrels and the great Weston is the famous character impersonator, whose impersonation of the late Queen Victoria has created world wide interest.

Others are Cook and Sylvia in songs and dances and the Pederson Brothers, the European comedy aerial artists.

Safety For Your Estate

Our method of administering estates and trust funds has not only all the advantages of an individual trusteeship, but other points of superiority that one-man direction cannot have. Sickness, accident or death cannot endanger a trust confided to us, because no one man is responsible for it. Our executive board act together, and are ready for business every business day in the year.

Every investment made, or other important action taken, represents the collective wisdom of a group of men expert in trust management, and their services cost an estate no more than it would pay an individual.

All our securities are officially inspected three times a year. We give bonds equal to twice the amount of the personal property of an estate we administer; and these bonds are backed by a guarantee of $4,500,000. An individual acting as executor or trustee rarely is required to give security.

NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION.

Of The United States.
In Convention Assembled at Denver,
Colorado, July 8, 1909.
Declaration.

The National Education Association, now holding its Forty-seventh Annual Convention in Denver, representing teachers and friends of education in every state of the Union, makes the following Declaration of Principles and of Aims:

1. A free democracy cannot long continue without the assistance of a system of state-supported schools, administered by the chosen agents of the people and responsible to the people for its ideals, its conduct, and its results. The commanding position of the American people is largely due to the general diffusion of knowledge and culture by its free schools.

2. Our system of state-supported schools must include elementary schools, secondary schools, schools for the training of teachers, and state universities. The changed conditions of the twentieth century also demand the establishment of free schools whose purpose shall be the training of our youth for commerce and the industries, as well as for the professions.

3. The purpose of our system of free common schools must continue to be chiefly culture for the individual and the transmission to posterity of the results of investigations and deliberations of the past. Our free schools must advance along the lines of educational democracy in the sense that they must provide equal educational opportunities for all. Altho they must give practical preparation not only for the professions, but also for commercial life, the demands of any part of the business world that courses of study be subordinated to particular interests is not in accord with the proper aims of a national system of common schools.

4. A system of common schools that will meet the needs of the times must be democratic in its purpose and its administration; must recognize the importance of expert supervision, of better and more numerous high schools, of better and more numerous schools for the training of teachers, of a merit system for the appointment and promotion of teachers; and it must exclude fraternities and secret organizations of every sort from the social life of the school.

5. The common schools of our country must recognize more fully than ever the necessity of training our youth for citizenship. The perpetuation of democracy depends upon the existence in the people of that habit of will which is justice. Liberty under law is the process for attaining justice which has thus far been most successful among civilized men. The call to citizenship is a call to the exercise of liberty under law, a call to the limitation of liberty by law, and a call to the pursuit of justice, not only for one's self but for others.

6. The National Education Association endorses the purpose of the American School Peace League. The Association believes that the principles of the League will make for effective citizenship, and urges all teachers to acquaint themselves with the work of the League and to cooperate with it.

7. The increased tendency to congestion of population in cities makes necessary greater and more systematic attention to the physical development of our children. No vigorous race of people has long maintained a high state of civilization under conditions that did not take into consideration the physical as well as the mental and moral development of its youth. The Association recommends that provision be made by the United States Bureau of Education for effective promotion of physical education thru the diffusion of scientific information on this subject.

8. The National Education Association approves the ever increasing demand for better qualified teachers in the common schools. This higher standard must lead logically to a longer tenure and to a compensation more nearly commensurate with the quality of preparation and with the nature of the service rendered.

9. The National Education Association heartily endorses the use of school buildings and all school equipment for community interests and social betterment.

10. The National Education Association endorses the movement to consolidate the rural district schools wherever practicable, and expresses the hope that this movement will be encouraged until the children of rural communities enjoy the benefits of public education to an extent approximating those now supplied to children of urban communities.

11. The National Education Association gives its hearty endorsement to the work of the National Bureau of Education, the Carnegie Foundation, the General Education Board, and all associations, institutions, and organizations that are working to develop and promote the educational interests of the country.

Respectfully submitted,
Edwin G. Cooley, of Massachusetts, Chairman.

John H. Phillips, of Alabama.
Charles H. Keyes, of Connecticut.
Augustus S. Downing, of New York.
Sylvanus L. Heeter, of Minnesota.
Committee on Resolutions.
Adopted by unanimous vote of Active Members in session, July 8, 1909.

Erwin Shepard, Secretary.

"PARAGON PARK."

Big Fireworks Display Proves A Positive Sensation.

Nothing quite so spectacular and unique in the way of a pyrotechnic display has been seen in this part of the country as the fireworks attack on "Paragon Park" last Saturday night by land and water and sky. It was a fitting climax to the war game which had been going on earlier in the week. At times the effect in the sky over "Paragon Park" was that of an aerial war in progress. It was a fine demonstration of what can be done with pyrotechnic effects, not only in the sky, but on the water. Every feature of the program was practically new to the big crowds that filled the Palm Garden, swarmed about the tables on the broad verandas, choked up the plaza between the Palm Garden and the band stand and spread out in thousands around the lagoon.

The best idea of the magnitude of the display may be had from a mention of some of the pieces. The exhibition opened with a salute of three aerial maroons, followed by a magic illumination of the lake, novel aquatic fireworks including floating fiery geysers, prismatic fountains, flying fish, submarine torpedoes, diving devils, a pillar of fire one hundred feet in height, the Merry Widow fan, Neptune and his daughter, attended by sea nymphs (covering 1000 sq. ft.), the rising angel, batteries of chromatic stars, batteries of electric spreaders, batteries of silver stars, discharge of 12, 15 and 18-inch sequence bombs, etc.

Manager Dodge made an extra large expenditure on this exhibition to demonstrate to his satisfaction that what the diners in the Palm Garden and patrons of the veranda tables like best in addition to the band concerts is a pretentious fireworks display, and the crowds came in such overwhelming numbers that no room for doubt was left.

Next Saturday night the fireworks display will be just as elaborate and in addition there will be a mimic sea battle on the lagoon reproducing the battle of Lake Erie.

A GOOD TIME TO BUILD.

The September number of Suburban Life, which is the annual building number, says the present is an excellent time for building private houses, because, contrary to general expectations, there have not been sharp advances in the prices of building materials during the past year. Undoubtedly, it cost more now to build a dwelling than it did twelve months ago; but, nevertheless, prices continue sufficiently low to encourage the prospective house-builder to proceed at once in planning for the erection of a home nest. To build now means to take advantage of conditions which, it is probable, will not exist a year from this time. Indications are many that this fact is being generally realized; in the suburban sections around New York City, it is reported, almost record-breaking business along building lines is being done.

INDUSTRIALISM AND DRINK.

The use of alcohol to drown trouble and to make a man forget the worries of the day, as suggested by Prof. Munsterberg, is not favored by the industrial leaders in Germany and Austria. A resolution passed at the Fifth Industrial Congress, held in Vienna October, 1907, declared that alcohol weakens the thinking power of the laboring man so that he is not in a condition to consider means of bettering his condition, and that in that country alcoholism is one of the greatest hindrances to the physical and mental advancement of the working classes. This Congress resolved, says "Der Abstinenz" (June), to engage in an active campaign of lectures and literature to teach the people the destructive consequences of the use of alcohol for the workman and his family.

OUR OWN.

If I had known in the morning
How wearily all the day
The words unkind
Would trouble my mind
I said when you went away,
I had been more careful, darling,
Nor given you needless pain;
But we vex our own
With look and tone
We may never take back again.

We have careful thoughts for the stranger,
And smiles for the sometime guest,
But oft for "our own"
The bitter tone.

Though we love "our own" the best,
Ah, lips with the curve impatient,
Ah, brow with that look of scorn,
"Twere a cruel fate
Were the night too late

A MUSCULAR TEETOTALER.

Rev. L. W. Munhall of Germantown, Pennsylvania, offers to prove that the man who indulges in stimulants is not the physical equal of one who abstains from them, and has issued a sweeping challenge to all drinking men to meet him in ten athletic contests. Rev. Munhall was inspired to issue the challenge by a postal card which he thinks was sent him by the State Liquor Dealers' Association, and which pictures a muscular arm gripping a sledge hammer with the inscription, "We stand for strength and vigor against prohibition. We stand for drinking in moderation." The minister, whose age is sixty-four, is now waiting for the "moderate drinker" to prove his prowess in the following contests: standing broad jump; running broad jump; running hop, skip and jump; putting ten pound shot; throwing sixteen pound hammer; fifty yard dash; five mile walk, heel and toe; five mile swim—(this to take place in July or August); handling fifty pound dumbbell in various exercises; bicycle ride, starting at six a. m. from north entrance city hall and going to campus front Princeton Theological Seminary and return, a distance of eighty-four miles.

Something New In Kitchen Ware

The "1892" Pure Spun Aluminum Ware is rapidly coming into use for cooking purposes. It is taking the place of agate and enamel ware because while its first cost is a trifle more than ordinary ware, it is really much cheaper in the long run, as it is guaranteed for twenty-five years and will last practically a life time.

The genuine "1892" Ware, made only from pure SPUN (not cast) Aluminum, will not crack, scale, peel, break, scorch or burn.

It looks like silver but weighs only about one-quarter as much, is easily cleaned and handled, and will not rust, corrode or tarnish. Absolutely pure, non-poisonous and wholesome; saves money, time and doctor's bills.

Be sure you get the original and genuine ware stamped with the Maltese Cross. At your dealers.

CHAS. D. KIEBER,

—Miss Dorothy Bear and her brother, Richard Bear, of Trowbridge avenue, are home from New Hampshire.

—Frank Frapp of Lowell avenue will return this week from a long stay in the Adirondack mountain region.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hodgkins of Harvard street are pleasantly located at The Welts, N. H., for the rest of the summer.

—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred M. Russell and family of California street are home from a fortnight's stay at Cottage City.

—T. W. Benner and C. L. Kirchner, who have been spending the greater part of the summer at Portland, Me., and vicinity, this week took possession of the dwelling at 25 Highland avenue, where they will make their home while teaching in the technical school.

—The indications are that the new technical high school at Newtonville will not be in readiness for occupancy with the reopening of the public schools on Sept. 13, according to a statement made by a city official in close touch with the work. A few weeks ago there was a delay in receiving material, which set the work back to some extent. The task of completing the interior finish has been much larger than was anticipated, it is said, and as a result the building may not be ready for occupancy until the latter part of September.

—Miss Marion Beckwith of Austin street is at Augusta, Me., for a few weeks, the guest of relatives.

Something New—Something Good

To encourage new business in the Mid-Season we offer these

Patent Tension Steel Shears Free

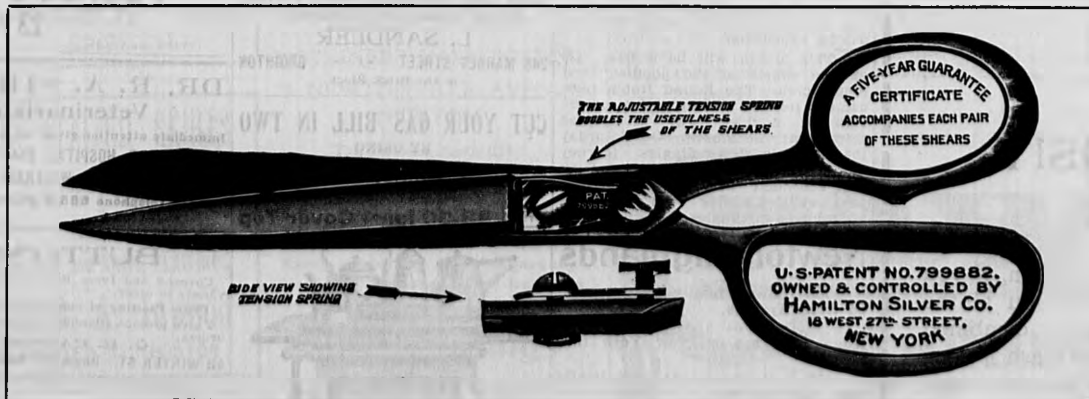

To every new subscriber to the Newton Graphic

The Latest and Most Useful Household Invention

The cutting edge on these shears is indestructible and will never wear dull. They will cut anything and everything, from wet tissue paper to a heavy horse blanket. Note the Patent tension Spring. It does away with resharpening entirely. Eight inches in length.

Eight-Inch Patent Tension Spring Shears

The Shears are manufactured of the very highest grade steel, perfectly tempered and heavily nickel plated on a highly polished surface. The patent tension spring takes up all the wear on the rivet so that the cutting edges will never wear dull. A simple turn of the little thumb screw will adjust the blades to cut anything from the thinnest and most delicate fabric to the heaviest material. Every woman who has had the exasperating and trying experience of attempting to cut with a dull pair of shears, will appreciate the value of this new invention.

Read This Guarantee

We guarantee the quality of the material and the workmanship in these shears to be first-class in every respect. That the tension spring doubles the usefulness of the shears and does away with the necessity of resharpening. A printed guarantee certificate accompanies every pair and contains the following: "If this pair of shears breaks or becomes defective in any way within five years from the date delivered it will be replaced with a new pair free."—By The Hamilton Silver Co., Muncie, Ind.

HOW TO GET A PAIR OF THESE SHEARS FREE

Onpayment of a years subscription in advance we will give you absolutely free a pair of these patent tension steel spring shears. We have only a limited number. Take advantage of this great opportunity at once by calling at this office or sending your subscription by mail. $2.00 a year.

A Modern Bank

It is the desire of the Bay State Trust Company to extend to its customers every facility and convenience that an up-to-date bank can offer.

The location, opposite the Public Garden and the entrance of the Subway, is in the direct line of those frequenting the shopping district.

Deposits and withdrawals by mail is an important feature which should be emphasized. It is safe and convenient and saves time and trouble.

The vaults and the coupon rooms are on the entrance floor. The necessity of going up and down stairs to get to your box in the vault is eliminated. The vaults are spacious and give every advantage for the safe keeping of valuables and the storage of silver and other effects.

In addition to its regular banking facilities, this company issues letters of credit, travellers' checks and foreign drafts, and also cables and telegrams money to all parts of the world.

The ladies' room, with free public telephone, affords every comfort for customers.

For the convenience of those in the business district, deposits may be made at the Merchants National Bank.

The Board of Directors of the bank are men of the highest financial standing and give personal attention to the management of its affairs.

HATCH—NEWHALL.

Miss Helen Newhall, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Newhall became the bride of Mr. Ralph Eliot Hatch, Amherst, '99, of West Newton, at a pretty home wedding last Tuesday evening at the Newhall residence on Hillside avenue, West Newton. The ceremony took place at seven-thirty o'clock and was performed by Rev. Edward A. Horton of Boston. The bride, who wore princess lace over white satin, was accompanied by her sister, Miss Emma Newhall, as maid of honor, and by Mrs. Maynard C. Hutchinson, a bride of this season, as matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Williamson and Miss Esther Lowe of West Newton. Mr. Charles Hatch a brother of the groom was the best man and the ushers were Dr. E. A. Knowlton of West Newton, Messrs. Richard Pope of Waltham, Edward Clark of Washington, D. C., Harry Davis of Greenfield, Mass., and Maynard C. Hutchinson of West Newton.

A largely attended reception followed the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hatch being assisted in receiving by the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Newhall and Mr. and Mrs. George P. Hatch. The house was attractively decorated with pink and white and the refreshments were served from a tent on the lawn. Mr. and Mrs. Hatch are motoring thru the Berkshires and on their return will reside at West Newton.

SHIPWRECKED.

Prof. H. J. Krumpeln, the well known blind organist, and his family were passengers on the steamer Laurentian which was wrecked last Monday on the shores of Newfoundland. All the passengers and crew were saved, reaching shore after a bitter experience. Prof. Krumpeln was on his way to Scotland where he intended to leave his family, returning to America to make a tour of the middle west.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE MEETS.

The regular meeting of the school committee was held at the old Clafin building on Wednesday evening, with Mr. Bothfield in the chair. The superintendent reported that the summer schools had been maintained for four weeks at a cost of $931.88.

The resignations of Mr. Gerrish, Mary W. May, Alice L. Harris, Grace G. Alden, Eva L. Miller and Elizabeth King were accepted and these appointments authorized:

C. H. Mumma, commercial, Gladys C. Gilmore, English, Chester L. Thorndike, mechanical drawing, Adrienne V. de Mers, commercial, Technical high school, Florence B. Colby, French, Ada Brock, German and French, High school, Cecile M. Diamond, Mason school, Susan F. Doran, Peirce school.

The next meeting of the committee will be held in the new quarters assigned to it in the Technical High school building.

NEW AMATEUR RECORD.

Mr. Walter S. Wait of West Newton won the medal handicap tournament for the holiday cup at the Brae Burn Country Club golf last Monday, making a new amateur record with a score of 72 for 36 holes.

NEWTON CENTRE PLAYGROUND NOTES.

From time in memorial it has been a vexed question as to whether, or not, married life causes deterioration in a man's game of baseball. On last Fourth of July the Married Men proved their superiority by a decisive score which has ever since rankled and Manager Allen Hubbard has now consented to give the Single Men a chance for revenge. This championship contest will take place on the Playground tomorrow at 3.30 P. M. At 1.30 on the same day another important game is scheduled, when the Newton Centre and the Newtonville teams of the Junior League will play their final match game.

FALL MILLINERY.

By Caroline.

As earnest as were the designers of Europe to copy everything suggested by a Gainsborough, they are now crowding the galleries for hints of coloring and form, by a Vandyke whose reds and greens are world renowned. Not a little amethyst is brought out with its complementary colorings. If the crowns of late were large they are now huge. But it is for the supremacy in brims that Fashion battles, the Napoleonic shape, with its upright back and front view with the late mushroom droop. Between the new Russian and Persian turbans honors are at present even. Velvet is used in profusion on all draped effects; while more corded adorns all plain fittings, the waterings are in beautiful new figures.

Miss Caroline will display these ideas in imported models of her own selection and her own creations, the last of Sept., at her parlors, 485 Boylston street, in the block of the Brunswick Hotel, Boston.

MUST USE CARE.

As a result of a complaint by Mr. Adams D. Claflin of Newton Centre to the Massachusetts Highway Commission, Alexander O. Anderson, a professional chauffeur connected with an automobile agency in Boston, has had his license suspended for one month. Mr. Claflin alleged that Anderson took his automobile, which had been sent to the shop for repairs, on July 27, without his permission and contrary to his instructions, and that he negligently damaged the machine by running it into a tree in Main street, Randolph. The complainant further claims that Anderson had the automobile shipped to Indianapolis from Brockton without his permission. Mr. Claflin said that when he left the automobile at the shop he gave explicit instructions to several employees that the car was not to be taken out on the road for testing purposes until he should be present.

Anderson said that the car was taken by him and a repairman to Yarmouth for the purpose of securing another automobile of the same make as Mr. Claflin's, which was out of order and which he wanted to bring back to Boston for repairs. On the return journey Mr. Claflin's auto, driven by Anderson, ran off the road and into a tree. He maintained that he took the machine out to test it and that he knew nothing of the owner's instructions.

The Board found that "the use of an automobile on a trip of 150 miles, mostly after dark, for the purpose of testing said automobile or in order to bring another automobile from one place to another, is not within the express or implied authority which can reasonably be attributed to persons entrusted with the repair of other persons' cars and that such a use is unauthorized and improper." Therefore it was voted to suspend Anderson's license. The action of the Board is explained as follows: "The Board imposes this slight penalty because it is the first case of this kind which has come before it, and it realizes that many repair men and chauffeurs have thought that they had implied authority to use other persons' cars in this manner; but the Board feels that this practice should be stopped, and that the testing of cars by repairmen and others, when the owner is not present, should not be carried beyond reasonable limits, and that certainly a trip of 150 miles is one far beyond 'reasonable limits.'"

Y. M. C. A.

We are glad to note that T. H. Thomas, one of our members, won the all around championship at the Newton Centre playground athletic meet on Labor Day. Mr. Thomas also pitches for the senior baseball team, sharing with Seth Wood the honor of pitching the team into nine consecutive victories.

The rubber game between Boston Y. M. C. A. and Newton resulted in a victory for the home team by the score of 17-5. The batting of the Newton team was a feature, Wood being the star with 4 hits in 6 times at bat.

The game next Saturday, between the Nonantum Boys' Club and the Y. M. C. A. is arousing unusual interest. A very large attendance is looked for. Both teams have been winning their games for the past two months, without a single loss and so this game is regarded as the most important in each schedule.

A pleasant surprise, and one which was well deserved, was sprung upon Arthur Lonergan, the captain of the baseball team, when his team mates presented him with a pair of baseball shoes.

The Board of Directors meets next Monday, Sept. 13th, in the parlor of the Association. Plans of importance will be presented and discussed.

A Preliminary Announcement of the opening of the activities of the Association has been issued. Any one may have one for the asking.

The first Gymnasium Class will be for leaders only and it will be held on Sept. 13th. All boys' classes begin the following week.

It is probable that the Newton high foot ball team, which will be captained by James F. Gallagher, will have seven veteran players next autumn, including Beatty, Allen, Barber, Gallagher, Weaver, Lynch and Marshall. Manager Lawrence Beckett has arranged a schedule to open at Newton with Needham high on Sept. 28. Other games will be as follows: Oct. 1, Dedham at Newton; Oct. 6, Everett at Newton; Oct. 12, Roxbury Latin at Newton; Oct. 22, Volkman at Newton; Oct. 27, Technology freshman at Newton; Oct. 30, Worcester at Newton; Nov. 6, Waltham at Waltham; Nov. 12, Brookline at Newton; Nov. 19, Cambridge Latin at Newton; Nov. 25, Brookline at Newton.

REAL ESTATE.

Henry H. Read has leased Mrs. Harriet C. Dudley's house, No. 45 Chesley road, Newton Centre, to Mr. Alfred Pearson, who occupies at once.

THIRD PLACE.

Nonantum Wins $100 at Waltham Muster.

The firemen's muster at the Field Day of the Waltham Aerie of Eagles on Labor Day attracted a large crowd with many spectators from this city, who rooted long and hard for the local tub, Nonantum, to win. Twenty-three companies, with something like 200 firemen were in the parade which preceded the playout at the park and they made a most striking appearance with bands of music and their red shirts.

Nonantum was the sixth to play and made a stream of 220 feet 9 1/4 inches, which at that time had only been exceeded by the Alabama Coon of Stoughton with its 225 feet 10 1/4 inches. The White Angel of Salem, however, which drew the fated 13th trial, was kindly favored with the wind down the board and won first place with a stream of 227 feet 9 inches. The Alabama Coon was awarded second prize and the Nonantums received the third prize of $100.

CORRESPONDENCE.

While the following letter was intended to be published in our last issue, it is so good that I believe I will be pardoned for printing it even at this "untimely hour."—[Ed.]

My Dear Editor:—

There is trouble in our village—Newton West. You remember, no doubt, that West Newton is blessed with many good things—not among the least of which are the churches. They, the churches, are all thriving. The lower floor of each is all right, but up in the spire of one—the part which is nearest to heaven, as some understand it, there is the cause of the trouble. The clock is stopped—nothing very new in this, for it has struck for more grease and shorter hours about every month for ten years. But now it has stopped for keeps. John, do you suppose it is "short never to go again?"

The effect on the nerves of our citizens is getting really a serious matter. One old life resident of the village square hasn't slept a wink for several nights because she couldn't hear the clock strike. Another nervous young man is much stirred up over the thought that lock-jaw is developing within him because the muscles of his neck are stiff, due to constantly stretching the neck in watching that clock. Again, one most influential and substantial citizen—I need not call him by name, lost his train because he took his reckoning from the fixed time on the dial. He told me in confidence, that because of losing his train he missed an appointment which would have netted him many thousands. I also feel certain, because I stood near him on the bridge when the train was pulling out, that losing his train and profits was not all he lost. John, I know by his language—the words that came from his mouth—that he has lost every chance of ever making heaven.

Think of a church or a part of a church deliberately keeping a man out of heaven. I shall call this matter—because of its ill effect on our citizens' lives—to the attention of our Board of Health. The real object of my writing is to discover among your liberal minded subscribers, some one who will contribute $1.63 towards getting the clock repaired. I understand it will cost $3.37 to squirt a little 3 in 1 oil into it. I will contribute $1.69—accent on the nine—myself. Now, my dear Editor, see what you can do to raise this $1.68. Don't let the fact that the congregation plan to build a new church some time keep you from pushing this matter. It will take several days and several heartaches before the large sum to build it can be raised and then several days more before the church can be completed—so don't hesitate.

FRED M. LOWE.

NONANTUM WINS.

The base ball game at the field day of the Waltham Aerie of Eagles on Monday morning was an easy win for the Nonantum B. C. as they defeated the Beacons of Watertown 9 to 1.

In the first inning it looked as though the game would surely be a fast one and if anything it appeared as if the Beacons were a little the better. This, however, did not last long, because the second time the N. B. C. came to the bat they scored four runs. It was in this inning that Glynn, the star third baseman of the Beacons, was spiked by Tobahl and it was necessary to remove him from the game. W. Riley was moved from short stop to cover his place and Monahan was placed at short.

No more scoring was done until the fifth inning when the N. B. C. brought in two and the next inning they succeeded in getting three. This was the last scoring done for the winners while it was the next inning that the Beacons scored their only point.

The N. B. C. has one of the best baseball records of any team in this vicinity, having lost but two games in two years and they have played over 30 games during that time. The Beacons' team is a good one, but it was much lighter in weight than their opponents and were outclassed in nearly every department of the game.

The batting lists of the teams were as follows:

Nonantum Boys' Club—Tabaldt cf, Eastman ss, Costigan 2b, Dorsey 3b, Connell 1b, Rouff lf, Kegan rf, Glingrass p, Murphy c.

Beacons of Watertown—Glynn 3b, J. Riley lf, J. Regan cf, W. Riley ss, 3b, Sheridan 1b, Allen c, Oates 2b, Gallagher p, W. Regan rf, Monahan ss.

The political situation relative to the three representatives from this city to the General Court has resulted about as predicted in these columns some weeks ago. Four names have been filed with the Republican city committee to be voted upon at the state primaries on Sept. 21st. All four of the men named would worthily uphold the standard Newton has so long maintained at the State House and in brief it is chiefly a question of "How happy I could be with either, were 'tother dear charmer away.' It should be borne in mind however, in making a choice among these names, that two of them have been prevailed upon to run by some of the most prominent citizens of Newton, and with them it is a case of the office seeking the men. The other two are candidates for the position and with them it is a case of the men seeking the office. For these reasons there should be no question whatever over the nomination of Messrs. Ellis and Bothfield, leaving the third place to be decided between Alderman White and Mr. Pulsifer. With many it will be difficult to choose between these gentlemen, but while I have the highest regard for Mr. Pulsifer personally, I believe that the logical choice for third place is Mr. White. He has patiently waited the retirement of Representative Bishop, and cheerfully acquiesced in the decision to give that gentleman a third term last fall. During this time he has become practically the only candidate from the south side of the city, to whom political custom has always given one representative. Mr. White, while one of the younger men in politics has served creditably at City Hall and should prove a good man on Beacon hill.

The transfer of the Newtonville business of the American Express to the Newton office should arouse a protest from residents of that village as the inconvenience is twofold, first the lack of facilities for expressing packages outward, and the delay in receiving packages caused by the long route from the Newton office.

AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP.

There were a large number of interested spectators present at the all round athletic championship of Newton, held on the Newton Centre playground last Monday, under direction of Mr. William N. Howard, Playground Director. The championship was won by Thomas H. Thomas of West Newton with 21 points, earned with two firsts and three seconds in the five events. Richard Leland of Newton Centre was second with 15 points closely pressed by Benjamin Shute of "Newton Centre" who had 14 points. Cups were awarded the three winners. The summary: One hundred-yard dash—Won by Thomas; Noyes, second; Farnham, third; Leland, fourth; Noyes, fifth. Time—11.25s.

Mile run—Won by Sorrell; Leland, second; Thomas, third; Owens, fourth. Time—35m. 36s.

Broad jump—Won by Thomas; Shute, second; Leland, third; Noyes, fourth; Farnham, fifth. Distance—17ft. 11in.

High jump—Won by Shute; Thomas, second; Leland, third; Faith, fourth; Farnham, fifth. Height—4ft. 11in.

Shot put—Won by Shute; Thomas, second; Leland, third; Farnham, fourth; Noyes, fifth. Distance—36ft. 2in.

The boys' events were a 200 yards dash won by Gordon Van Kirk, Robert Van Kirk, second, Louis Harris, third, the running high jump, won by John Whaley, Gordon Van Kirk, second, Frank Edwards, third, and the running broad jump, won by Gordon Van Kirk, Robert Van Kirk, second, Louis Harris, third.

CRYSTAL WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Fairweather celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage at their home, 48 Thornton street, Newton, on Friday evening, September 3.

The house was prettily decorated with pink roses and the table, at which a buffet lunch was served, was also decorated in pink. The grounds were illuminated with numerous Japanese lanterns and a dancing pavilion was provided for the young people; a hurdy gurdy furnished the music.

About one hundred and twenty-five friends called to offer their congratulations during the evening.

The ushers were Mr. J. Herbert Sizer, Mr. William Wells and Mr. Anthony Vincent.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairweather were the recipients of an abundance of rich cut glass, china and linen

SCHOOLS OPEN MONDAY.

New Technical High School Will Be Occupied.

With a splendid corps of 273 teachers and supervisors, Supt. of Schools Spaulding is busily completing arrangements for the opening of the schools next Monday, when nearly 7000 pupils are expected to take advantage of the exceptional facilities for education offered by the city of Newton.

This year will be a notable one in our educational history as it marks the opening of the new Technical High school, just completed at a cost of approximately $375,000, including equipment. While all the details of this immense structure are not fully ready, the building will be used for school purposes next Monday, and 500 pupils are expected, 215 being in the freshman class. The master will be Mr. Charles L. Kirschner, who has held a similar position in New Haven, Conn., and who has been in constant consultation with the school authorities during the construction of the new building. Mrs. Blanche E. Hyde will have charge of the department of household economics, Mr. M. W. Murray, of the mechanical department, Maynard Maxim, of the commercial department, Horace Kidger of history, Samuel Thurber, Jr., of English, Miss Elizabeth Sleeper of French, and Mr. Fred H. Daniels, of drawing. Miss Hammond, the present assistant to the secretary of the school committee, will be clerk to Mr. Kirschner. The salary list of the 24 teachers of the new school will total $39,500.

At the Newton High School, Master E. C. Adams expects an attendance of about 700 of whom 185 will be in the freshman class. The teaching force will be considerably changed as several departments have been transferred into the new Technical High School. Miss Ada Brock of Lynn will be a new teacher in German and French, and Miss Florence B. Colby of Springfield in French, taking the place of Miss May, resigned.

Miss Mason has been transferred from the Mason school to the English department, Miss Wood is a new special assistant in science and Miss Hannon, an assistant in English.

Miss Parker of the science department is away for a year's study abroad. The salary list of this High school totals $43,600.

Few changes are made in the teaching force of the grade schools.

There is a new master at the Burr school in Auburndale, Mr. Robert J. Sisk, formerly of Auburn, Me., taking the place of Miss McKenzie who is still seriously ill.

At the Bigelow school, Newton, Miss Hopkins and Miss Carr are new teachers. Miss Wood is a new special assistant.

At the Horace Mann district, Newtonville, Miss Orton is a new assistant, Miss Whitney has been transferred to the sixth grade in the Clafin, Miss Ruth Babcock, assigned to the fourth grade, Clafin, and Miss Harris is a new special assistant.

Two new teachers in the Stearns school are Miss Servi in the third grade and Miss Shippee in the sixth.

Miss Ring, the first assistant in the Peirce school, West Newton, is away on a Sabbatical year, Miss Grace Hill taking her place. Miss Susan F. Doran will have charge of the sixth grade, and Miss Baker is a new assistant.

The Emerson school at Upper Falls shows the largest number of changes, many of them due to matrimony. Miss Albee is the principal's assistant in place of Miss Sullivan, resigned. Miss Joyce is assigned to the seventh grade, Miss Upton, formerly of the Bigelow, to the eighth, Miss Dow to the sixth and Miss Ethel Hills to the first.

At the Hyde school, Newton Highlands, Miss Joss will be the assistant to Mr. Miller, the principal.

At the Mason school, Newton Centre, Miss Cecile M. Dimond of Springfield will have charge of the fifth grade. There is a new head at the Rice school, which incidentally has received a new coat of paint during the summer, Miss West of the Emerson school taking the place of Mrs. Merrill, resigned. In the Bowen school at Thompsonville, Miss Helen Stevens is a new special assistant.

Mr. Edgar Donaldson of Illinois will take the place of Mr. Murray in the Hyde and Stearns districts as head of the manual training department.

The Independent Industrial school which is maintained thru the generosity of the well known "unknown" citizen of Newton, will open in its new and enlarged quarters in the Jackson school building, Nonantum, in charge of Mr. Haynes. Only the old class will be received at present, although plans for the season contemplate another teacher in the near future and an increase in the number of the class by 20, although indications point to a much larger demand for admission.

Dr. Spaulding states that the new Technical High School has aroused a great deal of interest in the educational world and he anticipates many visitors. Some of the gentlemen attending the recent summer school at Harvard visited the building the past month and were enthusiastic over the facilities to be afforded Newton residents. One conservative man stated that Newton had the "best building and the best course of study in America."

OLD RESIDENT DEAD.

Mr. Wilder M. Bush, for thirty years a resident of West Newton, died at his home on Temple street last Monday after a long illness with heart trouble. Mr. Bush was a native of Bolton, Mass., and was 72 years of age. He is survived by a widow and one son, Robert, who resides in New York.

Funeral services were held yesterday morning at his late residence, in charge of Rev. John Mattison of the Church of the Messiah, and the burial was at Northboro.

WARD—AUSTIN.

The marriage of Miss Helen Austin of Melville terrace, Newton, and Mr. John C. Ward of Eddy street, West Newton, took place last Saturday afternoon in Grace church chapel, the ceremony being performed in the presence of only the immediate families, by the rector, Rev. Laurens MacLure. The bride was gown in cream silk, trimmed with blue silk and old lace and wore picture hat. After altar, Miss Mary E. Austin, was bridesmaid and Mr. William D. Ward, brother of the groom, was the best man.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Ward will reside at 2 Melville terrace, Newton, where they will be at home after October first.

RICHARDSON—HEMENWAY.

The marriage of Mr. John Richardson, Jr., of Hammond street, Chestnut Hill, and Miss Hope Hemenway, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Hemenway of Boston and Readville, took place last Tuesday afternoon at Christ church, Hyde Park, the ceremony being performed by Bishop Lawrence, an uncle of the bride. Mr. Richardson graduated from Harvard in the class of 1908 and was prominent in athletics while in college, being a member of the class crew.

We show one of the largest lines of French and German wall papers to be found anywhere outside the leading houses of New York, Philadelphia and Chicago, at prices that will surprise you. You can not buy cheaper wherever you go.

Most of these patterns have cut out borders, and the papers can be used with or without them. All have foreign cretonnes to match.

With these papers and cretonnes you can arrange a very attractive room.

LAND COURT.

To Annie E. Robinson, Elvora W. Lovejoy, Hortense King, Elizabeth E. Gill, Wentworth V. Lander, and Charles E. Gibson of Newton, in the County of Middlesex; John Read and Charles C. Read of Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex; Charles W. Leonard and Marcus Morton of Newton, Trustees of the estate of Elizabeth T. Eldredge, deceased; Henry B. Williams of Boston, in the County of Suffolk; all in and Commonwealth; the Fuller Academy, a corporation, formerly of said Newton, or its successors or assigns, and the heirs, devisees or legal representatives of Nancy Blinney Hickman, formerly of said Newton, deceased; and to all whom it may concern:

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court by Albert Stuart Pratt, Herbert Gale Pratt and Frederick Sanford Pratt Trustees under the will of Lucius G. Pratt, late of said Newton, deceased, to register and convey to them their title in the following described land:

A certain parcel of land situate in that part of said Newton, called West Newton, bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the northwest corner of said parcel on Highland Street, thence southerly on lands of Wentworth V. Lander, Elizabeth E. Gill, Hortense King, Elvora W. Lovejoy and Henry B. Williams six hundred and thirty-eight (638) feet, thence turning and running southerly easterly on land of said Henry B. Williams three hundred and sixty-six (366) feet to Forest Street, thence turning and running northeasterly on said Forest Street three hundred and ninety-four (394) feet, thence turning and running northeasterly on land of the devisees of Elizabeth T. Eldredge four hundred and forty (440) feet to the point of beginning; he said measurements more or less; said premises being shown as lots 30, 31, 32 and 33 on Wadsworth's plan of said Newton, dated July 1848 and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds in book of plans 3A plan 47; excepting however from the above described parcel such rights in Sylvan Avenue as have been taken by or released to the City of Newton and also a certain parcel bounded northerly by said Highland Street one hundred and seventy (170) feet; northeasterly by the curve at the junction of Highland Street and Sylvan Avenue fifteen and 71-100 (15.71) feet; westerly by Sylvan Avenue one hundred and ninety (190) feet; southerly by said petitioner's land one hundred and eighty (180) feet and easterly by land of the devisees of Elizabeth T. Eldredge two hundred (200) feet.

The above described land is shown on a plan and plat of said petition, and all boundary lines are claimed to be located on the ground as shown on said plan.

You are hereby cited to appear at the Land Court to be held at Boston, in the County of Suffolk, on the fourth day of October A. D. 1909, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. And unless you appear at said Court at the time and place aforesaid your default will be recorded, and the said petition will be taken as confessed, and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon.

Witness, Charles Thornton Davis, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this third day of September in the year nineteen hundred and nine. Attest with Seal of said Court. (Seal.) CLARENCE C. SMITH, Recorder.

Boston Theatre—Two hundred singers in a musical production is a novelty that Boston playgoers have not enjoyed since the years ago when Eugene Tompkins was at the acme of his success as a producer of big spectacles at the Boston Theatre.

With the great production of the new millitary opera, "The Gay Hussars," opening on Labor Day for a run, Henry W. Savage revived the glories of the old Boston Theatre and showed Boston playgoers an opera so much bigger and superior to anything that has been seen in recent years that the piece scored a sensational success.

Owing to contracts that have been made for other cities, the Boston engagement of "The Gay Hussars" is limited. Because the Boston Theatre is so large, it was decided to make the prices from 25 cents to $1.50 during the present engagement. There will be matinees every Wednesday and Thursday.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cook were guests of Mrs. Cook's aunt, Mrs. M. C. Upton at Marblehead for the last week of the Sonder races.

Safety For Your Estate

Our method of administering estates and trust funds has not only all the advantages of an individual trusteeship, but other points of superiority that one-man direction cannot have. Sickness, accident or death cannot endanger a trust confided to us, because no one man is responsible for it. Our executive board act together, and are ready for business every business day in the year.

Every investment made, or other important action taken, represents the collective wisdom of a group of men expert in trust management, and their services cost an estate no more than it would pay an individual.

All our securities are officially inspected three times a year. We give bonds equal to twice the amount of the personal property of an estate we administer; and these bonds are backed by a guarantee of $4,500,000. An individual acting as executor or trustee rarely is required to give security.

EDISON LIGHT CO.

The taking over by the Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston, recently, of the electric business of all the gas and electric companies in the suburbs of this city, reduced the charges for electricity 25 per cent, or from 16 to 12 cents per kilowatt hour, in Waltham, Chelsea, Brookline, Allston and Brighton.

In anticipation of the merger, Newton and Watertown profited by a reduction of 33 1-3 per cent in the charges for electricity last January, when the cost per kilowatt hour was reduced from 18 to 12 cents.

The state gas and electric light commission sanctioned the proposed merger on Aug. 24, and at 12.01 a. m. Wednesday the Edison company began formally to operate as one company, the several independent companies which have been furnishing electricity to the suburban communities. The companies taken over were the Waltham Gas and Electric Company, Newton & Watertown Gas and Electric Company, Boston Consolidated Gas Company of Brookline and the Chelsea Gas Company. The first named concern is a part of the Boston Suburban Electric Company, while the others are branches of the Massachusetts Gas Company.

The Massachusetts Gas Companies have controlled the gas business of the above named companies for some time and the relinquishment of the electric business that they have been doing will enable the companies to expend more energy in the building up of their gas business exclusively. As a result of economy in operation it is expected that there will be a reduction in the price of gas in several sections of Boston.

The Edison company also entered into a 10-year contract, dating the same time as the merger, to furnish power to the following suburban electric roads:

The Lexington & Boston, the Natick & Cohasset, the Newton, the Newton & Boston, the Middlesex & Boston, the Westboro & Hopkinton and the Newtonville & Watertown. For several weeks these roads have been trying the power furnished by the Edison company, and according to the statement last night of an official of the company the roads are very much better satisfied because of the constancy and the efficiency of the supply.

There will be no interruption in lighting service of those who were using the power supplied by the several independent companies. The transfer is merely a matter of business details and the changing of the records, so that the old consumers may become customers of the Edison company. The Allston plant will not be used after the mechanical details can be completed so that the power can be brought from the main plant in South Boston. There will be no change in Chelsea, since the power from that station has been coming from the Edison plant.

In Waltham the plant of the Waltham Gas & Electric Light Company was taken over by the Edison company, and the Newton & Watertown Gas Company was taken over yesterday. In that city the rate was reduced from 15 to 12 cents per kilowatt hour. The power price will be determined to suit the prevailing conditions, and a reduction may be expected.

Mrs. Bernard L. Tarbox, wife of the young coal merchant who eloped with his stenographer, has filed an action for divorce in the Middlesex Superior Court. She asks the court to allow her to resume her maiden name of Blanche P. Matthews, but makes no mention of alimony.

She says she has been a good wife since her marriage to Tarbox in Bath, Me., Nov. 25, 1908. Tarbox and Miss Devine are described as being in parts unknown, while Mrs. Tarbox's present residence is Bath, Me., where she is with friends.

Tarbox is 26 and the son of a wealthy family. He and Miss Devine eloped to Woonsocket, R. I., and were married, after which the girl's father asked for his arrest on a charge of bigamy. The eloping couple are said to be at present in Canada.

Tarbox resided in Bradford Court apartments at Newton Center, and his elopement in an automobile with Miss Devine last spring caused a sensation in Newton Center.

THEATRES

Orpheum Theatre—Next week will see two very important changes at the Orpheum Theatre. The first will be the change in the name of that well known house from the Orpheum to the American Music Hall and the second will be the re-opening of the vaudeville season under the management of William Morris, Inc. The change in the name is in accordance with the policy of the William Morris, Inc., of so naming the several theatres in its big transcontinental circuit. The opening bill will be composed entirely of headline features that will give a fair indication of the quality of the succeeding bills. Topping this bill will be the famous Roman Opera Company in a great operatic singing and scenic production "La Feste Di Mezz' Agosta." This company contains sixteen soloists of world wide celebrity and it has never failed to win the admiration of all music lovers wherever it has played. For real crisp comedy there is hardly an act on the vaudeville stage to compare with that of Herbert Lloyd and company. This act is called "The King of Diamonds" and is a screaming burlesque on all the tricks of vaudeville. More good comedy will be found in Cameron and Gaylord's offering "On and Off." This skit gives an insight into the actions of performers in their dressing rooms. That clever team Friend and Downing have just come back from London and will be seen in Boston for the first time since their big success there. As Rosenthal and Harrigan they are known favorably throughout the vaudeville world. The Royal Musical Five, a refined musical act, the Millard Brothers comedy cyclists and several other big acts will complete this remarkable opening bill.

NORUMBEGA PARK.

Beginning Monday, September 13, Norumbega Park starts on the last week of its regular season. Although this is the 13th season and the last week of it starts on the 13th of the month is has proved by long odds the most successful in its history. In every department of the park, whether at the entrance gates, the Restaurant, the merry-go-round, rifle range, garage, the Norumbega boat house, Casino, Chateau, or the open air theatre, all previous records of receipts have been broken. The same is true of the attendance. The regular season formally closes on Sunday night, September 19, and then will follow the usual supplementary season which lasts well into October. While the theatre and some of the other attractions will be closed, the Zoological Garden remains open; also the Norumbega boat house with its superb canoe and boat service, and patrons will for some weeks yet be able to enjoy the splendid trolley ride to Norumbega Park, indulging their love of autumnal beauties along the way, and finally drinking in Nature's crowning autumn glory as displayed in the turning foliage throughout the park and along the banks of the Charles as far as the eye can see.

CORPORATION TAX LAW.

Preliminary to the enforcement of the corporation tax law the treasury department has sent out the first set of instructions to internal revenue collectors. The collectors are instructed to furnish a list of the corporations in their respective districts, divided into three classes, namely: Financial and commercial organizations, public service; industrial, mercantile and miscellaneous. It is the initial steps in the creation of the great government collecting machine which will handle the "Taft Tax," as the new revenue measure is familiarly termed. The law requires that corporations must make their returns to the questions of the department before Jan. 1, 1910.

The returns of the corporations will form the basis for the preparation of the tables of taxes due from corporations.

Assistant Secretary Reynolds and the collector of the international revenue will prepare the questions. They will be numerous and searching. The form these interrogations will take is considered the most important work now before the department. The tariff law appears to be working smoothly, but the corporation tax contains so much that may be subject to the "acid test" of the presentation to the supreme court of the United States on the grounds of its constitutionality that the utmost care will be exercised in the preparation of every administrative detail. The preliminary list to be sent in by the collectors will show only the capital stock of the corporation, the kind of business they do and the location of offices, factories, real estate and transportation facilities. The questions will call for many facts as to the details of the business of the corporation.

FRANCIS NEWHALL,

THE "1915" BOSTON EXPOSITION.

To show the people of Boston and New England the resources and the possibilities of Boston as they can be developed between now and 1915, a "1915" Boston Exposition will be held in the old Art Museum building at Copley Square next November.

The object of this Exposition will be to show in a graphic and interesting form the work now being carried on by public institutions, benevolent, protective, reformatory and charitable; by public service corporations, and in fact all organizations at work for the betterment of the city.

Schools, colleges and libraries have been asked to exhibit. Educational, Social and Economic problems will be shown in a lively and unique way, giving information which has hitherto been put forth in a manner intelligible only to experts. This information will be put in the form of working models, moving pictures, photographs, diagrams, plans and stereopticon pictures to present vividly to the public the needs and the possibilities of the city.

The Exhibit Committee has secured the entire city plan exhibit recently shown in New York and Washington. It has also secured from the Library of Congress the United States Government's famous set of models by Burnham for the replanning of Washington. Efforts are also being made to secure similar displays from Chicago, San Francisco, New York and Cleveland. Achievements of European cities in planning their streets, docks, harbors and houses for working people are also among material already secured for the exhibits. Each exhibit will be expected to present a graphic picture that will draw and hold the attention of even a casual observer. The Exposition will open on November 1st and close on the 27th.

All exhibitors have been notified that their displays must be arranged with a view to showing definitely: What the organization proposes to do if it is properly supported in the next five years; what it has done in the past; what it is doing at present; what is the best that has been done anywhere in this department; and what the conditions and waste will be if these things are not done. Such an exposition has long been desired by the agencies at work for the betterment of Boston, and when the proposition of holding this exhibition was first broached in a tentative way, a number of the bodies consulted did not stop with declaring themselves strongly in favor of the project, but signified their intention of exhibiting. The Boston Chamber of Commerce which last spring conducted a tour of leading merchants through New England to strengthen Boston's work relations with other cities, has formally expressed its approval of the Exposition project, and has voted to co-operate in the undertaking.

The list of exhibitors is growing daily. An incomplete schedule of these will demonstrate the scope and the character of the organizations exhibiting, as well as the wide range of interests represented: Social Ethics Museum of Harvard University, Boston Public Library, School for Social Workers, Society of Arts and Crafts, Boston Association for the Relief and Control of Tuberculosis, Massachusetts Civic League, Young Men's Christian Association, Boston Elevated Railway Company, North Bennet Street Industrial School, Boston Society of Architects and the Boston Architectural Club, Brooke House, State Bureau of Statistics, Committee on Sex Hygiene, Boston Playground Association, Society for the Protection of Native Plants, Massachusetts Commission for the Blind, Committee on Milk and Baby Hygiene, Metropolitan Improvement League, American Peace Society, Massachusetts General Hospital, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston & Albany Railroad, and the Federation of Boys' Clubs.

The Exposition has been planned under four general departments: 1. The Visible City. 2. Educational and Social. 3. Economics. 4. Attractions. Under the first department will be included: City Plan, Parks and Boulevards, Sanitation, Illumination, Harbor and Docks, Transportation, Communication, Housing, Public Buildings, Health, Protection and Safety. Under the Educational and Social department will be: Schools and Colleges, Industrial Education, Playgrounds, Gymnasiums, Libraries, Cultural and Social Organizations, Citizens' Associations, Press and Publishing, and Charities. Under the Economic department will be: City Resources, Labor Organizations, Finance, Insurance, Advertising Boston. Under the department of Attractions there will be: Marionettes, Moving Pictures, Lectures, Music, Special Entertainments. Another important department of the Exposition will be an Information Bureau which will be equipped with a staff of men thoroughly informed as to the city affairs, the nature, character and relations of the exhibits and who will be ready to answer any inquiries regarding them.

Realizing that the failure of most exhibitions of this kind has been their reliance on dull statistics and charts and diagrams, a special point has been made in preparing this Exposition to have all the exhibits unique and in concrete form. Thus the Telephone and Telegraph Companies will furnish exhibits showing their systems in actual operation. The Housing Committee of Boston-1915 will show an average tenement room as conditions are, and beside it a room in a model tenement. Several of the educational institutions will install classes who will do their regular work for the entertainment of the visitors to the exhibit. Picturesque Boston will be interestingly shown by models, maps and photographs, furnished by the Metropolitan Improvement League.

The running expenses of this Exposition will be borne by Boston-1915. A small admission fee will be charged to help defray this large expense, but there will be no charge for exhibits occupied by the displays of non-commercial organizations, though each organization will pay the cost of preparing and installing its own exhibit.

REAL ESTATE.

Through the office of Alvord Bros. & Co., H. L. Boyer has sold to F. E. Huntress the estate, No. 12 Beechcroft road, Farlow Hill, Newton, consisting of a nearly new house, garage and 25,000 sq. feet of land; the whole assessed for $21,300 of which $16,000 is on the house, $300.00 on the garage and $5,000 on land.

John T. Burns, Newton and Newtonville, reports the sale of the D. I. Baker estate, 203 Windsor road, Waban, which is considered one of the best properties of its kind in this section. The property consists of a beautiful fourteen room house, large stable and over 43,000 square feet of land and is valued at $25,000. The purchaser was Mr. James H. Mason of Boston, who purchases for a home. The estate adjoins and overlooks the Brae Burn golf links. Mr. Mason and family will immediately occupy.

DREDGING BEGUN.

Several "swimmin' holes," where generations of boys from Newton Corner, Watertown and Brighton have whiled away the hours on countless sultry days will soon exist only in memory, for the dredging operations now in progress along the Charles river will destroy them. From the bridge at the Watertown arsenal to the dam above Galen-street bridge the river is to be dredged to provide a channel ten feet deep for motor boats.

The work commenced two weeks ago when several different kinds of machines were set at work. Particularly on the Newton side of the river some of the material dredged from the river bed will be deposited along the bank so as to make the foundation for the roadway that will form a part of the extensive improvements to be made.

The Watertown sewer department has practically completed the work of lowering the drains, siphons and sewers that cross the river above the new Galen street bridge. This operation cost the town $10,000 and was necessary before the dredging could be carried on at that point.

It is estimated that the dredging above the Galen street bridge will cost $13,000, while that between the bridge and the arsenal will cost $37,110. Steam shovels are being used in the middle of the river and they dump the earth into barges, while nearer the banks the "orange peel" dredgers are being used so as to deposit the earth on shore.

What most people take into consideration in opening a bank account is first, the soundness of the bank, second its location and third the conveniences it offers.

There is no more sound bank in Boston than the Bay State Trust Company and its location, opposite the Public Garden and entrance to the Subway, is the most convenient in the City for residents of Newton.

The whole scheme of the management of this Company is to conduct it for the benefit of the depositors.

A visit will convince anyone of the innumerable conveniences supplied to customers.

McKenney & Waterbury Co., No. 181 Franklin St., corner Congress, are offering some rare bargains in Gas and Electric Table and Floor Lamps, from an assortment of over five hundred styles. An unusual opportunity for those in want of more light for their homes.

FATHER CALLANAN'S FIELD DAY. At Newton Lower Falls.

For the past nineteen years the great attraction in this vicinity, on Labor Day, is the Field Day at Newton Lower Falls under the auspices of St. John's church, of which Rev. P. H. Callanan is pastor.

The Field Day on Monday last was a tremendous success as usual. The beautiful weather brought out thousands and young and old enjoyed themselves to their heart's content during the day and evening. One notable feature of these annual gatherings is the attraction for family parties. Father and mother and children leave their homes and spend the entire day and evening on the beautiful grounds. The equipment owned by Father Callanan represents an outlay of over twenty-five hundred dollars. Eighteen hundred dollars' worth of canvass is used in putting the grounds in order. The electric light outfit represents about four hundred dollars.

The wall tent encloses an area of over three acres and this canvass fence or wall tent is the longest ever made in New England. A large wall tent is also used for the tug-of-war contests and this will accommodate five hundred people. An immense concert tent and dancing pavilion are also provided. Besides these eighteen other tents are erected, eleven for refreshments, one for candy, one for fancy articles, two for sanitaries, one for supplies and two others for side show attractions. What specially interested the thousands of people this year was "The Midway." Not a dull moment was apparent during the entire day and evening.

On the left of the main entrance the first thing that attracted attention was the large concert tent, capable of holding two thousand people. In the evening a great wrestling match took place in this tent between Farmer Burns, the 130-pound light weight champion of the world, and Young Americus, the famous wrestling Dane of New York. This attracted a large audience in the evening, all paying a special admission fee to witness it. The contest was refereed by Mr. Geo. Touhey, formerly the manager of Tom Jenkins, the ex-champion wrestler of the world. The match was won by Burns, but Americus won one fall of the three.

Beyond the great concert tent on the Midway was the Fortune Teller's booth, which was well patronized during the day. Next came the Ten Pin game, a very attractive and fascinating sport.

A sign outside the next booth invited patrons to spend a dime to witness a large, live rattlesnake, captured last June by Father Callanan in the mountains of Kentucky. This attraction netted many dollars during the day. This snake has since been purchased by the managers of Norumbega Park and will be exhibited there.

Farther along, the famous Hickory Bill, African Dodger, invited all to "try three balls." The great Dancing pavilion came next and the young people tripped the light fantastic to the strains of sweet music from the orchestra. A magnificent Cane Board under an efficient committee of young men was the next attraction and this feature added almost a hundred dollars to the church treasury. Three hundred and twenty canes were distributed during the day. A fine shooting gallery with bell targets enticed the "sure of aim" and "true of eye" to try their skill. The very latest and best Winchester 22 calibre repeating rifles were used in this gallery. Next came the "Headquarters and Supply Tent" which was presided over by Father Callanan. Here all supplies were kept, official orders given out, change made, difficulties straightened out and in fact from this point the workings of the entire project were kept moving. Far in the rear of the grounds on this side was a neat men's sanitary.

The first thing that attracted the eye on the right of the Midway was the tall score board of the Striking Machine. A splendid game this to use up surplus muscle. Mr. Mark Connors of Wellesley Lower Falls, made the record of the day on this machine.

Near this was the Fish Pond, a great source of delight to the children and they caught many a fish during the day. Then came the mecca of the children in earnest—the Candy Booth—where sweets to the sweet were doled out all day long in great quantities. The young ladies and their escorts were much attracted to the next feature named the "Bean Bag Pitchett Board." Many a "ringer" was made on this during the day by the hundreds of pretty young ladies who attended. Then the same ladies tried to land three base balls into a series of pails on the inclined plane before them—this game called the "Pail Game" looked very easy, but the balls refused to stay in the pails for the fair ones; it was 5 cents, please, here all day. The Air Gun gallery was listed next on the Midway and Father Callanan is thinking of barring out the ladies from this next year. The target was 12 feet square and yet many of the darts never hit the board and may be traveling yet through space. Ah! and here is our old friend Aunt Sally next with her every ready T. D. in her mouth. This was a men's game sure and it took great skill to break the pipe in Sally's mouth with the small clubs used as throwing weapons. It was fortunate that the old lady suffered no pain from the abuse given her. And now another African Dodger who kept singing out abuse at his dusky rival on the other side of the Midway—it meant more business and kept "three more balls" going fast. At this point on the Midway one of the best attractions of the Picnic was located. It was the "Fancy or Grab Table." A bewildering array of beautiful things were noticed here. Many of the articles, home made hand work in great variety—were very valuable. This table did a business of over one hundred and fifty dollars for the day.

And right on a few steps further we come to the "Lamp Chimney Game." A series of lamp chimneys on cords, four or five of them with a dollar bill on the inside, were very attractive and the business of the day was good here. Five chimneys, each holding a dollar bill, were broken during the day and the money was given to the lucky ones. Further on a booth was erected to dispense tonics and cigars. At the end of the Midway on the right was the great wall tent for the Tug-of-War contests. Only one important "pull" took place during the day between a team from Cambridge and one from Lower Falls. This was a ten men pull and best two out of three. Alderman Lyons of West Newton was timekeeper and Father Callanan referee of the contest. The Cambridge team won both pulls, the first by a quarter of an inch and the second by one inch. A prize of ten dollars was given the winning team.

Eleven booths about the grounds were filled with good things to eat. Things hot, and things cold, ice creams of all flavors and cold tonics and hot coffee and hot "dogs" were at the service of all. One hundred and fifty of the ladies of the parish took charge of the refreshment booths and all worked like Trojans to serve their patrons. The official program this year took the form of a booklet entitled "The Labor Lay Carnival Bulletin." Two hundred advertisers patronized its pages as a tribute of appreciation to Father Callanan and his good work in Lower Falls. This Bulletin netted seven hundred dollars to the Carnival. The splendid illumination at night made the grounds look like a fairy land. Five hundred electric lights were used besides many large gasoline torches.

The entire returns are not yet complete but the parish will benefit something over two thousand dollars from the Field Day. From start to finish Father McGrath, the assistant pastor, worked faithfully to assist Father Callanan and no small share of the success of the carnival was due to his labors.

The burden of the actual work of the carnival was placed upon the following committee:

The Misses Nellie Costello, Annie Leonard, Agnes Alders, Gertrude Cahill, Nellie Regan, Della Burke, Johanna Kilmain, Mary Monaghan, Margaret Duggan, Hattie Dolaney, Kathie Martin, Katie Connolly, Helen Coughlan, Bridget Griffin, Mary Crotty, Julia Reardon, Julia Doolan, Alice Devine, Annie Warren, Alice Costello, Cora Hyde, Louise Costello, Annie Costello, Margaret Corcoran, Annie Fitzgerald, Martha McAllister, Lauretta Tryder, Helen Donovan, Anna Coughlan, Minnie Callanan, Mrs. James Ahearn, Mrs. Annie Morgan, Mrs. David Noonan, Mrs. Harry Veyett, Mrs. James M. Fitzgerald, Mrs. James McDaniel, Mrs. Mary Stevens, Mrs. Annie McLaughlin, Mrs. T. B. Kiffin, Mrs. Andrew Lane, Mrs. Thos. Griffin, Mrs. P. J. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Edw. McCabe, Mrs. J. E. Fitzgerald.

The general committee of men was as follows:

Patrick Crotty, Thos. Hyde, P. T. Cunningham, Thos. Anderson, Michael Delaney, James Burns, Alexander McDonald, Thos. Rourke, Daniel Warren, Edward Madden, James A. Early, Richard Rochford, Thos. NEAGLE-RYAN.

Mr. Frederick J. Neagle of West Newton was married last Wednesday evening at the parochial residence of St. John's church, Lower Falls, to Miss Mary E. Ryan of Wellesley Lower Falls, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. H. Callanan, pastor of the church.

The bride wore a white satin gown trimmed with Princess lace.

A largely attended reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride on Fairbanks avenue. After a wedding trip to Atlantic city, Mr. and Mrs. Neagle will make their home in Georgia, where the groom is engaged in electrical construction work.

NEWTON CENTRE PLAYGROUND NOTES.

On last Saturday the final ball game in the All Newton Junior League was played and resulted in a victory of Newton Centre over the Davenporters by a score of 11 to 2.

The standing of the seven teams who began this League Series on August 1st is as follows: Newton Centre, 300; Davenport, 266; Newtonville, 266; Young Americans, 200; Newton, 163; Beacon, 163; Upper Falls, 143.

This series has developed fine clean contests, and brought forward some excellent players who will be looking forward to a similar League next year when the series will be begun at an earlier date.

After the boys had decided the Junior League championship to the satisfaction of a large gallery, the playground diamond was given over to the match between the Married Men and the Single Men. In this game the Single Men, as organized by T. Barnet Plimpton, succeeded in getting revenge for their Fourth of July defeat and gave the benedicts the worst of it by a score of 11 to 5.

The first annual tennis tournaments for the Prize Cups were started on the new courts last Saturday, and both the girls' and the boys' tournaments have shown up splendid playing.

The final round of the girls' tournament was played Tuesday, and Miss Elsie Harrington, the winner, will be the first to have her name on the cup, which must be won three times to be held permanently. Miss Louise Walworth was runner-up. Many exciting and extremely well played matches developed during the three days' play. That the first tournament should be so pronounced a success was largely due to the work of Miss Katharine Mears who served on the Games Committee.

The finals of the boys' tournament will be played on Saturday at two o'clock, and it will be a match worth seeing. The entry list has at this writing been brought down to Carey Moore to play the winner of Edward Richardson vs. Stanley Moore.

MRS. MORRISSEY DEAD.

Mrs. Mary Morrissey, the widow of the late Thomas Morrissey, died last Monday at her home, 374 Cherry street, West Newton, after a brief illness with pneumonia. Mrs. Morrissey was 74 years of age and had been a resident of West Newton for about ten years. She is survived by a son, Thomas Morrissey, and four daughters, Mrs. Patrick Sullivan and the Misses Elizabeth, Mona and Mary Morrissey, all of West Newton.

Requiem mass was celebrated at St. Bernard's church, West Newton, yesterday morning. Rev. Father C. J. Galligan officiating and there was a large attendance of relatives and friends. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. Messrs. Daniel F. Riordan, John A. Duane, Richard Clancy, Harry D. MacBride, Richard Kyte and John Devoy were the pall bearers and the interment was in the family lot in Calvary cemetery, Waltham.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Attention is called to the Gymnasium classes which begin next week. Boys 10-12 years of age will have their first class Sept. 21st at 2.30 P. M. Boys 12-14 years of age begin on the same date at 4 P. M. The Intermediate and the Senior classes begin on the 27th and the 28th.

—Mr. M. H. Ward, who for three years was Boy's work director, paid a visit to the Association and met many of his old friends. Mr. Ward enters "Tech" this fall.

The final game of the base ball season will be played with the Nonantum Boy's Club at Cabot Park Saturday afternoon at 3.00. Last Saturday after an uphill fight the Y. M. C. A. team won by the score of 7-5. At the sixth inning the score was 5-0 in favor of the Nonantum Club but by a batting rally the home team finally won out. Day's fielding and the batting of Haliday and Chase were features. Brown played a steady game at first. This last game will be a good one and all the fans will be there.

DIED.

BOY DESPERADO.

James W. Cunningham, aged 17, or 188 River street, Waltham, was arrested Monday afternoon while in the house of the late Wilder M. Bush on Temple street, West Newton hill.

Mr. Bush died a week ago and the family was away. Patrolman Martin J. Neagle heard a noise in the house at about 4 o'clock and with the chief and Inspector O'Halloran whom he had called by telephone, began an investigation and found young Cunningham hiding in a closet on the second floor. The lad put up a stubborn resistance.

Cunningham had a long-barrelled single shot revolver in a holster around his waist to which was also attached a cartridge case filled with ammunition. In his pocket was found a 32-caliber revolver of an expensive pattern which he said later belonged to the Bush family. He was also armed with an ice pick and a hammer.

The prisoner gave his name as Fred W. Benson of Albany, N. Y. Later he admitted that his right name was James Cunningham of Waltham. In his pockets he had a lot of jewelry, cardcases, coins and other valuables, while he had bundles of silverware and other stuff all packed up. He said he had been in the house since 3 o'clock morning. Every drawer in the house had been ransacked. He told the police he had done at least two other jobs in Newton. He specified the houses of W. Kirk Corey and Henry W. Greenleaf, both on Commonwealth avenue, Auburndale. At the former Cunningham said he got two stickpins and some money, at Greenleaf's a $10 gold piece and some small articles of jewelry.

The prisoner, who is the coolest of his age that the local authorities have met with in years, was implicated in an incendiary case in Waltham early in the summer. The lad, in company with another boy of the same age, were said to have set fire to a barn on the Arthur T. Lyman estate, and at the request of Mr. Lyman were placed on probation. Since then the Waltham police have heard nothing from Cunningham.

In court Tuesday morning he was sentenced to the Concord Reformatory in one charge of breaking and entering, and the other two cases were placed on file.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Editor NEWTON GRAPHIC,
Newton, Mass.

Dear Sir:—During most of my life I have been a fairly regular patron of the Newton Free Library. Being young, I am especially interested in books of fiction. I have always entertained the idea that, if a book of any sort is obtainable at the Public Library, it must, of course, be beyond reproach in its character. Of late, however, I have slowly been coming to the conclusion that this idea is not based upon fact.

I have carefully read the Annual Report of the Board of Trustees for the year ending December 31, 1908, and, so far as I can discover, the purpose of this Board, during the last year—and I presume in other years—has been chiefly "to make the Library popular."

It seems to me that such an institution as a Public Library should stand for a higher purpose than popularity in itself. I am inclined to believe that the original purpose of those who organized, or endowed, the Newton Free Library was to encourage better living through broader knowledge (of the wholesome sort). I am sure the people of Newton agree with me when I assert that this ought to be the aim of the Newton Free Library, today.

With your permission, sir, I would like to quote from Dr. Lyman Abbott:—

"Fiction has three functions: entertainment, instruction, inspiration. The story may simply serve to pass an hour. One may read a book as he plays golf—for pleasure. Most of our magazine stories have this useful but not very ambitious purpose. The story may instruct. From Turgeneff or Tolstoy one may get a more vivid picture of Russian society than from Wallace or Leroy—Beaulieu; from 'Lorna Doone' a more vivid picture of English life in the seventeenth century than from Green. The so-called problem novel sometimes renders this service. It enables one-half the world to know how the other half lives. The story may inspire. It may put before the mind, through the imagination, an ideal of life and character which arouses aspiration and incites to action. If it only arouses aspiration, it is of doubtful value, and may be injurious; if it also incites to action, it is useful. To put before the reader a high ideal that can be realized, and so inspire him to attempt its realization, this is the highest function of works of imagination. If the story entertains and gives false information, it is bad. If it entertains and gives false ideals—that is, ideals that cannot be realized—it is worse. If it entertains and at the same time degrades instead of inspires, if it makes vice attractive and virtue repulsive, if its ideals are not only false, but vicious, it is a powerful instrument of vice. For we never rise higher than the ideals which we set before ourselves as the aim of our aspirations. . . .

"The story which depicts vice as anything else than disappointing to the hopes and degrading to the character lies; and acquaintance with the lies is not valuable knowledge. It may be necessary for a few experts to know such books; but the less the rest of us know of them the better our education. To read what is not worth reading in order to gratify either a prurient or an indiscriminating curiosity does not contribute to culture."

To my mind there are books in the Newton Public Library which do not measure up to this standard, so well set forth by Dr. Abbott. They are, set to say, greedily devoured by a large number of young people. A book which is morbid, verging on the indecent, should not be allowed to help mould the minds and characters of young people. Such books there are in the Newton Public Library. To illustrate this fact, at random, it might be of interest to those who like to read good books to compare the writings of G. Sidney Paternoster (especially his book entitled the "Lady of the Blue Motor") and also the writings of that prolific dispenser of highly improbable literature (if it can be called such), known as E. Phillips Oppenheim, with such a book as "A Certain Rich Man" by Wm. Allen White and also the works of Joseph C. Lincoln, who has written such sterling good books as "Cap'n Erl," "Partners of the Tide," "Mr. Pratt," "Cy Whittaker's Place," etc.

Yours respectfully,
GEORGE A. MACDONALD.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mary Worcester Sherman.

Mary Worcester Sherman, nee Danforth, is dead, aged 69 years, after a long illness of almost six months. Mrs. Sherman came of old Colonial stock, her grandfather on her mother's side being Joseph Burrill of Wintthrop, he having married a Boynton; and her grandfather on her father's side was Coleman Danforth of East Wakefield, N. H.

Mrs. Sherman was born in Somerville, but her family moved to Charlestown, so she might almost be called a Charlestownite, as she went to school there. She always had the kindest recollections of the Masters Swan. In her youth she was called sweet Mary Danforth, and her ambrosy types that she had taken, clearly proved that she deserved the title.

Mrs. Sherman lived a good many years in Newton Upper Falls after her marriage. The funeral was held in the chapel at the Newton cemetery and the day was beautiful that she was laid at rest. Rev. Dr. Philipps of Newton Highlands, preached the funeral service. She leaves a husband and son and four daughters.

Boston Theatre—Muriel Terry who has scored an exceptional individual hit as Volunteer Cadet Marosi in "The Gay Hussars" at the Boston Theatre, will be starred by Henry W. Savage next season in a new operetta called "Prince Willie," in which the little comedienne will play the title role. Miss Terry made her first public appearance singing in English at the Broadway premiere of "The Gay Hussars." She is the daughter of Col. Charles Terry, of the British Army, who is stationed with his regiment at Lahore, India, where Miss Terry was born. Seven years ago she won a scholarship from Bedford, Eng., to the Royal College of Music in London, where she took up vocal culture and the study of the violin. While at this institution she won the Muriel Foster prize, which is presented to the best dramatic actress among the students. Usually singers proceed from light to grand opera, but Miss Terry has reversed the rule. Miss Terry explains her reversal of the usual artistic procedure by the fact that she is rather a tiny person and the impresarios want bigger women for the heavy roles in grand opera. Miss Terry is the first woman in several years to score a big success in America playing a boy's role in operetta.

Castle Square Theatre—Timely as a play of Arctic life, comes "The Spoilers," a drama of the frozen North, to the Castle Square next week. The North Pole, and the regions adjacent, are so much in the public eye at the present moment, that Mr. Craig shows his wisdom in securing this drama for presentation by his stock company, and whatever the right of the claims of the rival explorers, "The Spoilers" will be certain to offer an attractive series of pictures and incidents. It is a dramatization of Rex Beach's novel of the same name, and its scenes take us far into the heart of Alaska, and among her mining camps and tumultuous mining life. The play has been staged under the direction of William Parke, and a series of stirring performances has been promised. The cast is a lengthy one, many extra players have been added to the stock company, and the leading roles have been carefully distributed among the principal actors.

BOSTON'S MOST DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.

Since his arrival in Boston a week ago, traveling in a palace car, and lunching with a large party at hotel Touraine, Peter the famous chimpanzee created more talk than anybody, with the possible exception of the explorers Peary and Cook. In fact he is more wonderful than any of these, as he is demonstrating the truth of a theory that has been the subject of controversy between scientists for a great many years. Peter bears out all the Darwin claims about the origin of man. Here we have a chimpanzee who rides, eats, drinks, sleeps and does everything the same as a human being. At Keith's his performances have been simply startling and the theatre is crowded daily to see this wonder. Besides eating at a table, smoking like a man, and doing the ordinary things of life, Peter is an expert bicycle rider, goes on roller skates, and does other stunts that are surprising when done even by men and women on the stage. He remains at Keith's for another week at the head of one of those bills that is making this theatre more talked about than ever. On it will be those famous New England comedians, Will Cressy and Blanche Dayne, who will present one of their sketches of New England life: The Kalnos, the English lifting act: Pat Rooney and Lorraine Bent in a new sketch: Oscar Lorraine who impersonates great musicians: The Vivians and others.

ELECTRIC SHOW, BOSTON.

An attraction that will draw thousands of visitors to Boston in November will be the great Electric Show which will be held in Boston, Nov. 15th to 25th. Already hundreds of novelties have been submitted to General Manager Chester I. Campbell, and from present indications the highest attainments and most modern electrical achievements will be represented. In fact, the possibilities are unlimited in making an exhibition of this character of great interest and educational value to the general public. The diversity of exhibits will prove a veritable "wonder world."

Manager Campbell has evolved an entirely new scheme for decorating and illumination, which will give the exhibition floor, and in fact the whole interior, not only a uniform but extremely harmonious and beautiful aspect. Approximately one hundred thousand incandescent electric lights will be used presenting a sight never before witnessed.

Particular attention is being given the industrial exhibits, which will represent manufacturing processes of all kinds in actual operation, and show the great strides that have been made by the manufacturers since the electric motor has been in use.

There will also be comprehensive exhibits of modern electrical appliances in every day use, all the novelties in time and labor saving and comfort giving devices. When it is realized to how many uses this power is now put in modern housekeeping, it will astonish even those who have thought they were up-to-the-times. There will be something of interest to the layman, the expert, the manufacturer, the jobber, the housekeeper, the ladies and even the children.

American Music Hall—For the second week's bill at the American Music Hall, formerly the Orpheum Theatre, a real treat in the line of variety and quality has been prepared for the patrons. As for the variety end there will be plenty of music, plenty of comedy and a great deal of novelty. The headline feature will be Beatrice McKensie, Walter Shannon & Company the clever sketch artist in the charming one act piece "More Ways Than One." This will be the first time that these people will have been seen in Boston, but there is no doubt as to the impression they will make and the reception they will receive. For real comedy there is no man on the stage so capable of handling it out as Ed Latell known as the Musical Minstrel Monologist. He is not a stranger to Bostonians who know well that to see him is to laugh. Another act that will be seen for the first time here is that of Mildred and Carlisle in their rural skit "After School." Sophie Tucker the woman with the masculine voice is sure to create a sensation. She is the young woman who was "discovered" by Zeigfeld for his Follies of 1909 and played with that company in New York during the summer. As a real "shouter" she is in a class by herself. As might be expected the Romany Opera Company will be held over for another week for Bostonians seem to be unable to get enough of this remarkable operatic troupe. They will have an entirely new repertoire in many respects superior to the one presented this week. DeWitt Young and Sister known as the College Boy Juggler and the Lady Boomerang thrower, Mazuz and Mazette, Billy K. Wells, and other high quality features will complete this wonderful bill.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

At Mechanics Building Food Fair.

Every grade of music from the Inflammatus to the plantation melody is well given by the versatile Tuskegee Institute Jubilee Singers. The melodies are wonderfully well done; the plaintiveness of some ails and the sensuous beauty of others, coupled with the soul of the singing, fills the hall, deep and sweet and irresistibly pathetic, the notes prolonging themselves with weird effect. This excerpt from "A Day at Tuskegee" is a word picture of the negro vocalist at his best, retaining all the wonderful song power for which his race is noted, with the added beauty and power that comes from cultivation and training. The managers of the New England Food and Home Furnishing Exposition—a term synonymous with "The World's Greatest Food Fair"—which opens in Mechanics Building, Boston, September 27 and is to continue for five weeks, are receiving much praise for securing as a stellar attraction the Tuskegee Institute Jubilee Singers, the picked vocalists of the 1,600 students at Booker T. Washington's world famed negro college at Tuskegee, Alabama. Five concerts will be given every day in Paul Revere Hall and at the same hours Charles Winter Wood will describe the splendid growth and wonderful results accomplished at this Institute, and the life work of the leader of the negro race, "the teacher, the writer, the man of affairs, the man of common sense, Booker T. Washington." Without doubt Mr. Washington will be present during the Exposition and describe the uplift given his people by the Tuskegee Institute. The other attractions of this great Exposition are Marco Vessella and his band of soloists (first appearance in New England), Belle Yeaton Renfrew and the famous Bostonia Women's Orchestra of fifty pieces, a moving picture theatre with all the latest films, and an Old Time Circus, arranged and managed by J. W. Gorman, the best known amusement purveyor in New England. All this in addition to the 400 splendid exhibits, some of which are of intense interest and educational value to the purchasing public. It goes without saying that an Exposition dealing thus generously with the public and crowded with features of special and general interest will achieve a phenomenal success.

LASELL SEMINARY.

Mr. Leon H. Vincent will give a series of four lectures on American authors at Lasell Seminary. The first of these will come on Thursday evening, September 23rd, at 7:45 o'clock. Subject: Nathaniel Hawthorne. The public is cordially invited to attend.

There is altogether too much indifference manifested towards the approaching primary election on Tuesday next, when candidates for representatives to the General Court will be selected. Republicans should not view the matter with indifference, hoping to do their full duty at the state election next November. The selection of our next representatives to the State House will be made next Tuesday and the November election will be but a ratification of the result of the primary. Newton has such an unusual opportunity this fall to secure the services of men of the character of Messrs. Ellis and Bothfeld, that the present attitude of Republican voters is simply amazing. The gentlemen who have been persuaded to stand for the nomination will do nothing towards securing the place for themselves and it is up to the citizens
to determine whether or not the highest kind of service shall be given the city next year on Beacon Hill. The only way to secure this desirable result is to vote yourself and ask all your neighbors to vote. The polls are open from three o'clock to nine o'clock next Tuesday afternoon and it will be but a matter of a few moments to stop on your way home from business and cast your vote. As a third candidate I suggest the selection of Alderman White, the only nominee from the south side of the city.

The Metropolitan Park Commission is sadly remiss in its duty towards this portion of its district. Newton pays over $37,000 annually towards the expense of this autocratic commission and receives but a small fraction back in the way of care and supervision. For some years the condition of the Charles river, which is the attraction for many thousands of persons each season, has been brought to its attention, and the only action taken has been to clean up a little underbrush on the shores. The present condition of the river demands immediate action and it is hoped that the city authorities will press the importance of the work upon the commission until something adequate is done.

The selection of Mr. Marcus Morton
as an associate justice of the Superior Court of the Commonwealth is an honor to the city as well as the man.
May the new justice follow in the footsteps of his distinguished father and grandfather.

Newton is now the home of four Judges of the Massachusetts Superior Court.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The first regular meeting of the board of aldermen after the summer vacation, was held Monday evening.
President Weston in the chair and Aldermen Bacon, Burr, Cabot, Clarke, Day, Doherty, Gray, Holmes, Jones,
Lyons, Moore, Palmer, Stone, Webster, White and Williamson being present.

Hearings were held on petitions of
A. H. Watt, Vernon street, and the Telephone Co., Cherry street, to keep gasoline, at which no one appeared,
and licenses were subsequently granted.

At the hearing on petition of the Telepost Company for attachments to poles of the street railway company
on Lexington street, River street, Elm street, and Washington street, Mr.
Sellers, president of the Company, appeared. He said in part: We ask for this location to enable us to meet our contract with the railroad companies and obtain a direct line to New York.
We merely ask to place a small cable
one half inch in diameter on existing
poles of the street railway company.
We have reached Chicago with our system, and have lines to St. Louis, and from Boston to Portland. We need this location to reach New York and Washington. Our service is giving for the low rate of 25 words for 25 cents.

Mr. Cahill spoke in opposition as there were too many wires on these poles now. They ought to bury the wires as Waltham has required them to do.

Mr. John J. McLoughlin also objected unless the wires were buried,
saying that in a year the insulation
will be off and the trees will be burned.

Mr. J. F. Maglinchey also objected.
Mr. Sellers said that the wires would be enclosed within a lead cable and are of low tension. The Company first wishes a direct line and will immediately put branches out for local business.

The mayor's appointments of some 160 precinct officers were confirmed without question.

The jury list was also received from the Registrars of Voters and a long list of street sprinkling assessments, submitted by the Street Commissioner was subsequently ordered levied.

Notices were received from the Republican and Democratic city committees of intention to participate in the State primary of Sept. 21, of the moval of pole on Hyde avenue and of the Edison Co. for underground conduit in Walnut, Crafts, W. Gram streets for pole locations on Hillside avenue and on Melrose street.

Hearings were also ordered on the report of the Forest Commissioner, relative to removal of certain dead
and dangerous trees.

On report of committees, Willie I.
Lane was granted a Common Victual license at 833 Washington street,
and leave to withdraw granted on petitions of Negrotti and Lagorio to keep open on Sundays.

Orders were adopted establishing pay of precinct officers, establishing polling places for state and city elections, making assessments for suppression of moths, for street sprinkling and dust laying, and for concrete sidewalks on certain streets, granting permit to Gas Light Co. to lay main

for payment of interest on School loans, and authorizing receipt of money for improvement of certain streets at Elliot.

An amendment to the rules was also presented and referred, relative to use of Commonwealth avenue, north side, by automobiles.

The board adjourned at 9.10 o'clock.

FOOTBALL.

The candidates for the Newton Independent football team assembled at Boyd park last Monday evening for the purpose of organizing and electing a captain and manager.

In the contest for captaincy William Pepler received twelve votes on the first ballot, G. F. Smith six, and Jos.
Mahoney three. Mr. Pepler was elected captain on the second ballot, he receiving fourteen votes and Smith receiving seven. Elmer E. Canfield was unanimously selected manager of the team. There are a number of new men trying out for the team this year, and a much speedier and aggressive team than last year is anticipated.

The team has been particularly fortunate in securing the services of Mr.
William Mahoney as coach. He is a master of the rudiments of the game, and is a good teacher. With these assets, it is believed, he will prove himself a clever acquisition to the men who will aid Captain Pepler in shaping the Newton Independent eleven this year.

The majority of the games will be played at Newton at either Boyd or Cabot park, and the first game of the season will be played with the Roman
A. C. of Roxbury at Boyd park, Saturday, Sept. 25, at 3.30 o'clock. The visiting team were the claimants of the 125 pound championship last year,
and as the home team intends to win
all their games this year, there will be some class to the game.

All communications for games should be addressed to Elmer E. Can-field, 68 Boyd street, Newton. Tel.
New. No. 610.

WEST-BURNHAM.

Miss Bertha Gertrude Burnham, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Burnham became the bride of Mr. Thomas Alexander West of this city, last Tuesday afternoon, at a pretty home wedding which took place at the residence of the bride on Pearl street, Newton.

The ceremony was performed at three o'clock, Rev. Dr. Geo. S. Butters officiating, the bridal party entering the parlor to the Mendelssohn Wedding march played by Miss Frances Prescott of Newton. The bride wore a white embroidered Empress gown, over white taffeta, and daintily trimmed with lace and ribbons. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas.
Miss Florence E. Burnham, her sister, was maid of honor and wore pale blue messaline silk trimmed with chif-fon and lace, and carried bride's roses.
Mr. W. Wallace Hadden of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was the best man.

A reception followed until five o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. West being assisted in receiving their friends by
Mr. and Mrs. Burnham, Mr. and Mrs.
Robert West of Saco, Me., Miss Burnham, Mr. Hadden, and Miss Hazel I.
West. The house was attractively decorated with evergreen and pinks, and streamers of colored ribbons. The bride's Sunday school class served refreshments, Miss Hazel West and Miss Marion Brown presiding at the punch bowl.

Mr. and Mrs. West are enjoying a wedding trip thru the West by way of Canada, with a visit at St. Paul, Minn.

DONLON-SULLIVAN.

Mr. Frank T. Donlon, a well known resident of the Lower Falls, was married Wednesday evening to Miss Margaret E. Sullivan of Natick, the ceremony taking place at that town, Rev.
M. F. Delaney officiating.

The bride wore a white messaline
gown, with a diamond brooch, the gift of the groom, and carried bride's roses. Miss Julia M. Sullivan of Natick was maid of honor and the best man was Mr. John H. Donlon of New Haven. The ushers were Messrs. T.
W. Donlon of Providence, T. J. Mitchell of Waban, C. F. Lane of Newton Highlands and W. T. Manning of Lower Falls.

A wedding reception followed at the home of the groom on Fairbanks avenue, Lower Falls, which was decorated with potted plants and white chrysanthemums.

After a wedding trip to Washington,
D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Donlon will reside at 595 Grove street, Lower Falls, where they will be at home after Dec. 1st.

MCLEAN-HARRISON.

The wedding of Miss Alice Lillian Harrison, the daughter of Lieut. and Mrs. Robert S. Harrison and Mr. John
R. McLean, the well known station agent at Auburndale, took place Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock at the home of the bride on Beacon street, Waban. The ceremony was performed at three o'clock by Rev.
John Matteson, rector of the Church of the Messiah.

The bride was gowned in white Liberty silk over white satin and was accompanied by her sister, Miss Rachel Harrison, as maid of honor wearing white lace over blue silk. Mr.
William Johnston of Newton Centre
was the best man.

A well attended reception followed the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McLean being assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. McLean.

After a wedding trip to Annapolis
and Halifax, Nova Scotia, Mr. and Mrs. McLean will reside on Sharon avenue, Auburndale.

IN SERIOUS CONDITION.

Charles River a Menace to Health.

The condition of the Charles River between Waltham and the Lower Falls is seriously alarming the city authorities. The low condition of the water all summer has created many stagnant pools of water in the many bays
and inlets, and the present conditions favor malaria and mosquitoes. In addition there is a large growth of algae and duckweed and the shallowness of the water allows the canoe paddles to stir up the muddy bottom. The odor is marked and if allowed to continue will certainly drive canoeists away from the river and its beautiful shores. The mayor, chairman of the board of health and the city engineer will make a thorough inspection within a few days and determine upon some plan of action. Thorough dredging of the entire width of the river and the clearing of its shores is said to be the only sure remedy.

Warm houses can best be secured
by using "WINCHESTER" heaters.

A fifteen years' record, with progress made every year, is worth investigating by the owner who contemplates heating his dwelling. Made for either steam or hot water, by Smith & Tayler Co., 236 Congress street, Boston.

The Aetna Mills

A NEWTON MAN WHO IS MAKING GOOD.

A friend was quoting poetry in the Observer office the other evening and in the course of his poetical flights said: "There is music in the humming of the loom". Now I thoroughly disbelieved this particular stanza and said "Music nothing", but the longer I thought of it the more interested I became and it finally culminated in a visit to the Aetna Mills to listen for myself and see and hear. I did not find the music but I was so interested that I asked permission to write of what I saw.

To begin with I had no idea that a woolen mill had so many departments, so much detail to look after, so many loopholes for the profits to sift through and I became more and more interested as I visited one department after another from sorting to finishing and saw the wool from the time it entered the receiving room to the completed, woven product of the mill.

It was warm; in fact it was worse than warm, it was hot, when I spunked up courage, took the auto and took a run to Bemis on the beautiful Charles. I had been in Bemis a great many times and had of course passed the Aetna Mills, but never before with the thought of entering them. I found Mr. Freeman, the general manager, seated at his desk in the large cool office and without hesitation we plunged into an interview.

"In the beginning" as the fairy stories go, Mr. Freeman's grandfather, Mr. William Freeman, owned a dye-stuff manufactory and mill in Water-

partment, the painstaking motto of the employees "have your goods right" is shown, to the immense shipping room, where upwards of 3,000 yards of cloth are wrapped and shipped every working day in the year.

I would like to dwell at length on the different departments; on the weave room, with its seemingly numberless looms, through the dye room, whose capacity is 5,000 yards, through the machine and carpenter shops, the new addition, the pressing room, drying room, cleansing room, dyeing vats, etc. I would like to talk of modern machinery, driven by individual motors, of the fire systems of automatic sprinklers, of the new system of lighting by mercury lamps, considered the best in the world for this business, but my space forbids. I will say, however, that the one sentence "up to date" expresses Mr. Freeman's idea better than anything else. For instance, he is utilizing the water power of the Charles river by taking out the two old-fashioned wheels, building concrete retaining walls and putting in four turbine wheels of 50 horse power each, which will be used for generating electricity.

From the time I entered the office until my journey ended, where the new spur track for coal is to be placed, I could not help but be struck with the keynote of Mr. Freeman's personality which dominates the entire working force. He says, "Everything must be absolutely the best that we can make at or anywhere near the price." Personally, he is a very busy man, as he has at his fingers' ends every detail of the work, handled by the 350-odd employees now in the mill and the new addition which will accommodate 100 new looms, run by the most uptown. Coming up the river he purchased a mill on the Newton side which is now used as a storehouse.

Here he did quite a business in dye-stuffs, importing the dye woods from the West Indies, and it was here in the late 50's that he became interested in the textile manufactures, together with Ellisha Atkins; whose son, Edwin F. Atkins, is now president of the company, and it is largely due to his progressiveness and his ability to grasp the opportunities offered that the Aetna Mills are on the sound financial and commercial footing they occupy today.

After consideration the company acquired the property on which the mills now stand. Mill No. 1 was built in 1860. Mills Nos. 3, 5, 6 and office were built about 1862. No. 2 in 1889, No. 9 in 1894, and No. 10, the new extension, in the present year. Up to five or six years ago the motto of the Aetna Mills was: "From sheep's back to wearer's back," and the output of the mills was confined largely to ladies' dress goods. About this time worsted goods became so popular that the mill decided to handle serges, and with blue serge as an entering wedge entered the worsted market, and today the mill does a large volume of business in men's worsted wear and is famous from one end of the United States to the other for the quality of goods which it produces.

A new weave room was built in 1880 according to the most up-to-date plans at that time. It was doubled in size in 1904. The primary object of the company has been to make domestic fabrics equal, both in grade and price, to the highest grade of imported goods. This, the Aetna Mills, although handicapped by the high price of Australian wool, have demonstrated can be done. To follow the different stages of the selling force of the mill from conservatism to aggressiveness would be a long story, suffice it to say that they are following today a well matured plan which will keep the Aetna Mills in the foremost rank of woolen goods manufacturers.

Commencing at the office I went with Mr. Freeman from the engine room and boiler room where the necessary 400-horse power is generated, and by the way, did you ever stop to figure the number of shovelfull of coal necessary to furnish this horsepower; to the inspection room, where perhaps more than in any other department, the painstaking motto of the employees "have your goods right" is shown, to the immense shipping room, where upwards of 3,000 yards of cloth are wrapped and shipped every working day in the year.

The output of the mill is problematical; it changes every 6 months as additions are built, but by the time everything is in working order about 4,000 yards a day, with yearly pay roll of $200,000 is expected.

In these later days of "frenzied finance" the working force and the head office must be in perfect accord. In this respect the management of the Aetna Mills are to be congratulated for in every department of the business the outsider notes at once the harmony, good feeling and "work for the firm idea" which is so essential in modern business life. Step by step the firm has moved upward from the old straight commission selling to the opening of modern offices, whose furniture, even in its simplicity and usefulness, spells business. The head office of the firm is in Boston, with Merrill A. Smith as treasurer and sales manager, they have lately established an office with a large show room in the Knickerbocker building in New York City and have recently established a thoroughly equipped office on Franklin street, Chicago. Salesmen from these three offices cover all the states of the Union with the result that "Aetna Mills" is a synonym for good fabrics throughout the Union.

Mr. Frederic W. Freeman, the general manager, was born in West Newton in February, 1880. He was educated at Newton high school. He received his technical training in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology from which he graduated in 1901, and in which institution he served on the instructing staff for some time. Going into the Aetna Mills he worked for three years, thoroughly familiarizing himself with the work of the different departments. He was a designer in 1905, a superintendent in 1906, and general manager in 1908. He is a member of numerous societies and clubs, including Delta Kappa Epsilon, Dalhousie Lodge, Newton R. A. Chapter, Technology, Unitarian, Neighborhood, Brad Burn, Economic, and Republican Clubs, Mass. Civic League, National Association of Manufacturers, National Association of Wool Manufacturers, and a director of the American Association of Woolen and Worsted Manufacturers. The department heads are: superintendent, Richard Lees; paymaster, Louis J. Mayell;

WABAN TENNIS.

An entry list of all the ranking players except Garrison and Gould, splendid conditions and management, combined to make the annual Championship Singles tournament at the Waban Tennis Courts one of the best in the history of the club. The holder of the President's challenge cup, Elliot H. Robinson, played through the tournament and won the title for the second year, defeating on Labor Day C. C. Blaney, G. Williams, D. Nichols and D. M. Hill in succession. The tournament was begun on the Saturday previous and continued on Monday furnishing sport for a good sized gallery for many of the matches were close and well played. On Monday afternoon Mr. Robinson met Mr. Hill in the finals and won in straight sets, playing in top form and being especially effective at the net and overhead, while his opponent was unsteady. The consolation singles were also brought down to the finals, W. R. Fisher meeting J. B. Cook in a close contest which was postponed on account of darkness at the end of the third set, the former leading two sets to one.

The summary: First round:—G. Williams d. W. M. Buffum 6-4, 6-1; F. W. Rane d. L. W. Arnold by default; J. C. Buffum d. W. Dow 6-3, 6-2; C. A. Sawyer d. L. W. Strong 6-1, 2-6, 7-5.

Second round:—G. Williams d. Rane 6-7, 6-2; E. H. Robinson d. C. C. Blaney 6-2, 2-6, 6-1; D. Nichols d. J. B. Cook 6-2, 6-1; W. H. Parker d. C. Earnshaw 6-3, 6-0; D. M. Hill d. W. R. Fisher 6-2, 6-4; F. Williams d. F. Davis 6-2, 6-1; A. C. Turner d. R. D. Kimball 6-1, 6-3; C. A. Sawyer d. J. C. Buffum 6-3, 6-2.

Third round:—Robinson d. Williams 6-4, 6-3; Nichols d. Parker 7-5, 6-4; Hill d. F. Williams 6-3, 6-1; Turner d. Sawyer 6-3, 6-1. Semi-finals:—Robinson d. Nichols, 6-3, 6-2; Hill d. Turner 6-3, 6-1. Finals:—Robinson d. Hill 6-2, 6-4, 6-2.

REAL ESTATE.

Baker Estate At Waban Sold.

John T. Burns of Newton reports the sale of the Baker estate at 203 Windsor road, Waban. The grantor was D. I. Baker and the purchaser, James H. Mason of Boston. The property consists of a mansion house, stable and about 44,000 square feet of land, the estate being valued at $26,000. Mr. Mason purchases for a residence and will immediately occupy.

The above broker also reports the sale of 227 Church street, Newton, to Richard Baird of Newton, James Wallace being the grantor. Property consists of a frame house and 4,000 feet of land valued at $2,300.

Agreements have been signed for the sale of lot 7, Lowell avenue, Newtonville, to Allan Sweetzer of Boston. The parcel consists of 3,493 square feet, assessed for $1,520. Adams D. Clafin, executor Clafin estate, was grantor.

The same broker also reports the sale of 91 Lowell avenue, Newtonville, for T. W. Bradshaw of Philadelphia. The property consists of a cottage house of eight rooms on a corner lot, taxed for $3,000. The purchaser was J. A. Remington of Newtonville.

The sale has been made of the property at 101 Central avenue, Newtonville, to Edward F. O'Halloran of West Newton. William R. Wilson of Nahant was the grantor. There is a large frame house and 8,375 square feet of land, assessed for $6,300.

The sale has been completed of 130 Walnut street, Newtonville, for Albert Carter to M. Haase of Newton. The estate comprises a large frame house and 12,500 square feet of land, valuation being $6,500.

John T. Burns was broker in all above transactions.

STREETS VIEWED.

Members of the Massachusetts Highway Association, composed of road builders all over the state, visited Newton yesterday afternoon in a large sight seeing automobile. The party, while in Newton was in charge of Street Commissioner Ross, who showed the Association the street work on Hammond and South streets, Chestnut Hill, Commonwealth avenue from Chestnut Hill to Auburn street, Auburndale, thence thru Auburn street, Washington street, Chestnut street, Prince street, Commonwealth avenue, Walnut street, Cabot street, Centre street and the Hunnewell hill district at Newton. Mr. Ross called special attention to the various kinds of dust layers used in Newton and much interest was shown by the visitors. From Newton the party went thru Watertown, Belmont, Cambridge and Somerville, the trip ending at Revere Beach.

Mr. Matthew C. Brush, vice president and general manager of the Boston Suburban Companies, was completely surprised last Monday night by some four hundred employees of the Companies, by the presentation of a fine Howard gold watch and fob to match and a framed picture containing photographs of the several heads of departments and business associates.

The affair took place at Norumbega park theatre at 1.30 on Tuesday morning, special cars being run, after the completion of the day's work, from various parts of the system, Waltham, Lexington, Hopkinton, Natick, Needham and Newton. Mr. Brush, who had dined with Mr. Sylvester in Boston that evening, was aroused about one o'clock by his host of the evening and taken to Norumbega in an automobile. As he passed from the entrance of the park to the rear of the stage the lights were extinguished, only to blaze up the moment he entered the stage from the rear, and was greeted with loud applause by the men present. With Mr. Brush on the stage were Mr. Sylvester, Mr. Geo. M. Cox and the heads of departments.

Mr. Sylvester said that the gathering was to pay tribute to one who had been their leader and was about to leave them and then introduced Mr. Cox as toastmaster.

Mr. Cox first called for a musical selection and then introduced Mr. Clarence F. Cormier, general store keeper, to make the presentation for the men.

Mr. Cormier said that he could not adequately express the appreciation and high esteem in which Mr. Brush was held by all present. For the past six years he had guided their course with a master hand and had worked hard and conscientiously. The employees have been treated with kindness, firmness and justice and have looked to their leader with pride and satisfaction. We all wish you the brightest possible success in your new field and present this watch and fob as a remembrance of this large and happy family.

Mr. Brush was completely taken aback and it was some moments before he could reply, saying it was the hardest position he had ever been placed in his life and he was completely at a loss to know what to say.

He began with the statement that when he came to Newton, six years before, he knew but one friend, a college chum, and realizing this, he thought his hearers could appreciate something of how he felt at that moment. New England, he continued, is noted thru the west for its conservatism and cold bloodedness, but he had found no place that could give a man, such a cordial reception, hearty support and real friendship as he had found here. You have given me the finest, heartiest support that could be given anywhere by any public service corporation and doubt if in the United States there could be more genuine hearty friendship than here.

Mr. Brush commented on the fact that, while other corporations were governed by executive committees, the policy of this Company had been a one-man power, and that President Richards had demanded the utmost responsibility from all his subordinates. This policy developed the individual, while the other made men machines. It had also been the policy of the Company to fill all places with promotions from the ranks and Mr. Brush cited many instances of this nature. He said also that the title "Square Deal Brush," which had been mentioned in a recent editorial in the Newton Graphic had greatly pleased him and declared that it was absolutely necessary for a General Manager to treat his employees fairly, in order to achieve success. He said he had endeavored to give the employees of the Company the same treatment that he would like to receive himself, if he had been in their place, and hoped the men would feel that he had been sincere in all his relations with them. He was glad to note that so many of the men present had been with the Company for 5, 10 and 15 years, a fact that should make all realize that there was a future for all who entered its employ.

He asked the men to remember that in a sense they were as much public officers as the elected representatives of cities and towns. We operate in the public highway, so that the public has a claim upon us, and at the same time we represent some 650 stockholders, who are fairly entitled to a reasonable return upon their investment.

I want to thank you for the bully, fine and cordial support you have given me and to express my most sincere appreciation, as there is no asset to a man, equal to the friendship of his subordinates. It will give me a lot of satisfaction to make the Company to whom I go next month, run their cars according to the time which you give me.

Mr. Brush announced that Mr. Richards desired him to continue as a director in the Companies and he would probably be in Newton once a month and hoped to be able to do the men some good in that position.

Mr. Brush announced that Mr. Carl A. Sylvester would be his successor as General Manager, and spoke warmly of his associations with him, saying it was a compliment to himself that Mr. Richards had selected Mr. Sylvester. He urged the men to give Mr. Sylvester the same support which they had given him, saying that he would play the game square with them and that it lay in the power of the men to make or break Mr. Sylvester as a success in the new position.

Mr. Brush also announced that Mr. S. E. Walker would be appointed general superintendent of all the properties on October 1st and that Mr. James W. Sullivan would be made superintendent of divisions 1, 2 and 4.

Mr. Brush then presented Mr. Sylvester with a gold watch as a personal tribute. An original song entitled "Friend M. C." to the tune of "Good Bye Dolly Gray" was then sung by Mr. John Cotton and in response to vigorous applause he gave another original song to the tune of "Gee, I wish I had a Girl."

Mr. Sylvester was then presented to hand over to Mr. Brush a framed picture of the heads of departments. He said that Mr. Brush was energy personified, no one ever saw him walk upstairs, run a car slowly or keep within the speed limit when operating an automobile. His optimism, also, knew no bounds, and he had been at all times, a friend, adviser and inspiration to him.

A flash light picture was then taken of the entire party, after which an excellent collation was served by Caterer Osgood in the cafe. As the party broke up about four o'clock, Mr. Brush shook hands with each man as he left the building.

STREET TRAFFIC CENSUS.

The census of street traffic in this city which was taken the first week in September by Street Commissioner Ross for the Massachusetts Highway Commission is a most interesting study.

The inspectors were located at the corner of Commonwealth avenue and Washington street, Auburndale, and at Newtonville square, and counted all kinds of vehicles which passed those points between 7 A. M. and 9 P. M. for one week. The inspection covered one horse team, with light vehicle, one horse team with heavy vehicle, two or more horse teams, light and heavy vehicles, automobile runabout and automobile touring cars. The figures are as follows:

| | N'tville Sq. | Com. Ave. |
|------------------|--------------|-----------|
| One horse, light | 1502 | 1121 |
| One horse, heavy | 2819 | 654 |
| Two horse, light | 89 | 94 |
| Two horse, heavy | 644 | 426 |
| Runabouts | 734 | 1035 |
| Touring cars | 1186 | 3726 |

Totals 6974 7056

It will be noted that while the automobile traffic on Commonwealth avenue constituted 67 per cent, at Newtonville square it was but 27 per cent, showing what a factor the boulevard is in this city as a route for motor cars.

The amount of travel each day is also interesting, the figures being as follows:

| | N'tville Sq. | Com. Ave. |
|-----------|--------------|-----------|
| Tuesday | 1214 | 1035 |
| Wednesday | 1047 | 715 |
| Thursday | 1313 | 1089 |
| Friday | 1270 | 992 |
| Saturday | 1201 | 1201 |
| Sunday | 308 | 813 |
| Labor Day | 621 | 1211 |

Note the coincidence on Saturday, the drop in volume on Sunday and Labor Day in the business section at Newtonville and the increase on Labor Day at the boulevard, due to the holiday travel in automobiles, over 900 cars passing on that day alone.

WOODWORTH—HUMPHREY.

The marriage of Miss Frances Cassandra Humphrey, a nurse at the Newton Hospital, to Mr. Julius Merritt Woodworth of Newton Highlands took place last week Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hopkins of Aberdeen street, Newton Highlands. The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock by Rev. George M. Bailey, pastor of the Newton Highlands M. E. church, and was followed by a reception until ten o'clock.

The bride wore white satin, with diamond ornaments, the gift of the groom and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. She was accompanied by Mrs. T. Weston Chester of Hartford, Conn., as matron of honor, wearing white chiffon and carrying pink asters. The flower girl, Miss Shirley Hopkins, carried a basket of blue bachelor buttons, and Master Paul Hopkins was the ring bearer. Messrs. Clifton Wilson and Herbert Rust were the ushers, and the wedding march was played by Miss Bunle Person.

After an extended wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth will reside on Fisher avenue, Newton Highlands.

OLD RESIDENT DEAD.

Mrs. Ellen Barnes, aged 83 years, the widow of the late Michael Barnes, died last Tuesday at her home on Adams street, after a long illness with cancer of the stomach. Mrs. Barnes was a native of Ireland, but has been a resident of Nonantum for about sixty years. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Charles E. Hodges, Mrs. Thomas Welch, Mrs. Charles Pollock of Newton and Mrs. Ella Mulvihill. Requiem mass was celebrated at the Church of Our Lady this morning and the burial was at St. Patrick's cemetery, Watertown.

LINCOLN TRUST CO.

The newly organized Lincoln Trust Co., in which many Newton gentlemen are interested, has definitely decided upon its location. It will occupy the fine quarters on High street, Boston, at the junction of Summer street, until recently occupied by Rice & Hutchins. This will give the new company a very advantageous location, nearly opposite Lincoln street, and close to Federal street, where it will have ample room and light. Steps have already been taken for fitting up the new quarters and it is expected that the company will begin business early in October.

MARCUS MORTON

A Newton Man Third of the Name to Become a Massachusetts Judge

Governor Draper has again honored a resident of this city in the appointment, on Wednesday, of Mr. Marcus Morton of Newtonville, as associate justice of the Superior Court. The selection of Mr. Morton is of peculiar interest, as his father, Hon. Marcus Morton, chief justice of the Supreme Court of the state and his grandfather, also the Hon. Marcus Morton, was a Supreme Court judge for fifteen years and was also a former governor of the Commonwealth.

Mr. Morton was born in Andover, Mass., April 27, 1862, and is the son of Marcus Morton, late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, and Abby H. Hoppin.

Mr. Morton graduated from Phillips Academy of Andover in 1879, from Yale College in 1883, from Harvard Law School in 1885, and was admitted to the bar in 1885.

Since then he has been associated in business with Robert M. Morse, Esq., and for five years was a partner of Hon. Charles S. Hamlin in general law practice.

He has also served as auditor and master in many important cases.

Mr. Morton is a member of the Union, University, Economic and Twentieth Century clubs of Boston, a vice-president of the Episcopal Club, member of Brae Burn, Neighborhood and Tuesday clubs of Newton and of the Bunker Hill Association, and a director and treasurer of the Old Folk's Home of Newton.

He was elected a member of the school committee from Ward 2 in 1905 and is now serving his second term of three years in that office.

Mr. Morton married Miss Maria E. Welch of Newton, and with two children, Marcus and Helen, resides on Highland avenue, Newtonville.

—Mrs. J. J. Browne, of Indianapolis, who has been spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Birdsall, of Newtonville avenue, is joined this week by Mr. Browne for a week's stay, after which they visit relatives in New Haven, New York and Washington, returning to their home in October.

—The Executive Board of the Newton Women's Christian Temperance Union met Monday, Sept. 13, 3 P. M. with the Secretary, Mrs. W. E. Birdsall. A program was outlined for the coming year, on even broader lines than last, and the afternoon was enjoyed by all. An interesting letter was read from Mrs. Katherine Lente Stevenson on her way to Australia. Mrs. Stevenson, who is State President of the W. C. T. U., is touring the world in the interest of temperance, and reports gratifying results.

HOLLYHOCKS.

Lonely tolls the cheerless hillside housewife;
Burden heavy tax her, morn till night;

Neighbors caught by townward drift have left her;

Nature's closing in for final fight. Terrible fate,
Early and late,

Nature attacks at her soul's very gate.

Aspirations youthful long have perished;

Faith in God against the wildwood's power

Clings to one beloved, surviving symbol,

Life supernal showing,—cherished flower,—

Hollyhock near,
Hollyhock dear,
Hollyhock, light of the farm-life so drear.

Weary drags her life, her form with shoulders stooping;

Few and faint the rays of bright hope shine;

Husband earthworm, children straggling wild weeds,
Gloom intense in every spot but thine,

Hollyhock neat,
Hollyhock sweet,
Hollyhock smiling thy mistress to greet.

Sole survivor of the bride's bright fancies,

Hardy 'mid neglect serene to bloom,
Strength it gives her daily in her weakness;

Light it pours in each care-darkened room,—

Hollyhock bright,
Hollyhock white,
Hollyhock yellow and red all alight.

Church's spire to her, an unchurched toiler,

Points it heavenward, silent, faithful, true;

There her soul, by tall, unbending taper,
Worships God thro' blooms of fairest hue.

Hollyhock long,
Hollyhock strong,
Hollyhock, flower of heaven and song.

Holding close her one true heavenly vision,

Summer's warmth thro' winter's cold kept dear,
Wildwood's fierce attack she daily parries,

Wins at last her soul's salvation clear,
Brave thro' her war,

Angel afar,
Lighted to heav'n by a hollyhock star.

Apparently every boy in the village wants to play football on the playground. To meet this demand, it has been decided to organize, first, an Intermediate League of eleven, consisting only of boys thirteen, fourteen and fifteen years of age and residing in the city of Newton; second, a Junior League of boys twelve years or under, residing in Newton Centre. Another field will be laid out for the younger boys. Physical Director Howard will give both Leagues careful oversight and will try to help each eleven to secure a good coach. The games will be scheduled probably beginning October 1st. The games between the Newton Centre eleven and the teams of the other villages on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. All the contests will be held on this playground, and a strict regard for the rules of the game will be insisted on. It is suggested that those interested in the forming of the eleven write Mr. Howard at once or speak to him at the playground any afternoon.

There is also a movement afoot to form a representative All-Newton Centre eleven for the boys now at work who can have their Saturday afternoons for the game. The first try-out for this team will be on Saturday afternoon, September 25th. All who have played or wish to make a try at the game are urged to appear at that time and report to Mr. Howard who is to act as coach.

N. H. S.

Charley H. Paul of Newton Centre, captain at Newton high school, '08, and who, besides playing football on the Yale freshmen team last fall, last spring rowed on the Yale freshmen crew, will report as a varsity football candidate on Yale field. He played tackle in school.

Among the men who reported for practice were Barber, quarterback, Allen, Beatty, Gallagher and Weaver. Lynch, last year's guard, is expected to report next Monday.

CITY HALL.

The boundary line of Newton and Waltham was perambulated recently. Mayor Hutchinson is arranging for the annual fall outing of the board of aldermen. Saturday, October 30th, will probably be the day selected.

While the selection of any three of the four candidates for the Republic-can nomination for representatives
would have ensured a capable representation at the State House next winter, it is especially gratifying to the friends of Messrs. Ellis and Both-field, that they have been chosen without effort on their part, altho it must be confessed that the majority given Mr. Bothfield was not so large as his record deserves, and his friends had wished. Mr. White, who made the only active canvass, for the place, was successful, of course, and his lead of the entire poll is due to the "bullet" cast by his friends all over the city. I predict that Mr. White will prove a capable representative.

With this issue the GRAPHIC enters upon its thirty-eighth volume and the tenth under its present management. While the paper has not been in every respect all that its editor or the public could desire, it has been the effort of the management to cover
as far as possible the extremely difficult field (in this city especially) of social news, as well as the more important movements which are making for a "bigger and a better" Newton.
I ask in the future for aid in making the GRAPHIC a faithful representative of the high standard of citizenship for which Newton is famed; and the widest charity in any failure to reach that ideal.

W. C. T. U.

Middlesex County, Woman's Christian Temperance Union, observed its silver anniversary at South Acton Wednesday. Delegates from the Newton Union present were Pres. Mrs. S.
L. Eaton and Mrs. Collins, and from the West Newton Union Pres. Mrs.
W. H. Rand and Dr. Louise Rand. Although the W. C. T. U. of Middlesex County were organized in 1873, they reorganized 25 years ago to admit work in different departments of which they now have twenty. Reports were given Wednesday by the superintendents of medical temperance, Frances Willard Settlement, soldiers and sailors, Sunday school work, open air meetings and literature.
The President, Mrs. Rolfe of Concord, and Treasurer, Mrs. Boynton, have served in their offices 25 years and the Secretary, Mrs. Saxe who passed away in 1908 had served 24 years. It was an interesting and profitable session and a number of gentlemen present were invited to participate.

We hear that Mrs. Buettel Arnold,
7 Temple place, Boston, has just returned from Europe on the steamship America and has brought with her as fine models of Paris hats and bonnets
as could be found in the Paris establishments, leading in the millinery
art. She will commence to exhibit them the 28th of September.

KING—WHITNEY.

Miss Helen M. Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Whitney of Newtonville, and Mr. Benjamin F.
King, formerly of Pittsburg, were married last evening in Central church, Newtonville, by Rev. Jay T. Stocking.
The bride's gown was white satin trimmed with duchess lace, and she carried lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Mabelle Whitney, wore blue messaline made with hand-painted dresden and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Bertha Whitney and Miss Emily Whitaker of Worcester, were in blue. Miss Susan Dunlevy of Newtonville was flower girl.

The best man was Mr. William Meamer of New York, while the ushers were Messrs. Charles Rugg and Kenneth Ballou of Worcester, John Stevens of Minneapolis and J. Frank Dunlevy of Newtonville.

There was a reception at the bride's home, 88 Central street, where the receiving room was decorated with pink asters, the dining room in red and the music room in green and white.
The couple will reside at the Isle of Pines, where the groom is engaged in the real estate business.

NEWTON—FISH.

The wedding of Miss Helen Sarah
Fish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Charles A. Fish, and Mr. George Harvey Newton of South Framingham, took place Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents at 14
Union street, Newton Centre, Rev. Edward M. Noyes of the First Congregational church officiating. Miss Abbie Fish was maid of honor. The best man was Mr. Willis E. Newton of South Framingham, and Misses Alice Dudley, Mary Bright, Mary White and Katherine Bright assisted as ribbon girls. The ushers were Messrs. Edward Rawson of South Framingham, Earl L. Hatch of Allston and Charles Ryall of Newton Centre. The bride was gown in white silk, and carried white bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The ceremony took place under a floral arch, and the dwelling was prettily decorated with autumn leaves and flowers.

MR. TALLMAN DEAD.

Mr. William Cyprilan Tallman passed away Wednesday at his home on Richardson street, after an illness extending over a period of 8 years. He was a native of Northern New York State and was 72 years of age. For 30 years he was New England passenger agent for the Grand Trunk Railroad. As the New England agent for the Grand Trunk road he negotiated business for the corporation estimated at several millions of dollars yearly. He retired from business in 1892. He was a member of several organizations including the A. F. and A. M. Two sons, Frank B. and Charles J. B. of Boston, and a daughter, Mrs. Leon M. Abbott, wife of a Boston lawyer, survive him. The funeral will be held from his late residence this afternoon at 2.

BIJOU OPENS FOR THE SEASON.

The Bijou Theatrum opened for the season last evening to a large attendance. The moving pictures entitled "Cardinals Conspiracy," "Jones Burglars," "Wood Floating down the Mowan," "They were bound to Elope"
and "Different Rulers of the World"

all Pathe and Biograph films, were well received. Miss Hazel Mann's singing of ballads made a hit. The Travelttes showing when Old Glory had been victorious, a series of historic slides with verse explanation, made a pleasing program. The Bijou will open every evening at 7.15. Saturday matinee will be given for the children from 2 to 5 P. M. The Pictures will be changed Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week.

NEWTON CENTRE PLAYGROUND NOTES.

The base-ball has now made way for the pig-skin, and scrub practice is going on every hand. The Davenport eleven in the Intermediate League is already organized, and the Newton Centres are trying out material. In other wards teams are being made up and the League games can be started next month. A Junior League is also to be formed for boys twelve or under living in Newton Centre and any boys who wish to play should report to Mr. Howard on the playground.

Under the school session system recently introduced, our boys have long afternoons for out-of-doors. This is likely to make the playground a busy and attractive place this fall. Mr.

Howard was last year captain of the Springfield eleven, which had games with Harvard, Yale and other big colleges on its schedule, and his advice and coaching should help turn out some clean, lively sport this fall.

The school garden on the south slope of the playground attracted considerable attention during the summer. Many appreciated the children's efforts, and some, evidently, appreciated the children's products. Saturday before school opened there were still left some fine sunflowers, but on Sunday those marched off in the buttonholes of some older boys.

On Saturday last a large crowd watched the finals in the Boys' Tennis Tournament, and Carey Moore, in a finely played match, won the honor of first having his name on the Playground League Cup. The Cup stays in his possession until next September, when it must be won again.

The System of engaging tennis courts which Mr. Howard has introduced has proved a great satisfaction to all who play the game. It gives all a fair chance at the courts without annoying waits.

Safety For Your Estate

Our method of administering estates and trust funds has not only all the advantages of an individual trusteeship, but other points of superiority that one-man direction cannot have. Sickness, accident or death cannot endanger a trust confided to us, because no one man is responsible for it. Our executive board act together, and are ready for business every business day in the year.

Every investment made, or other important action taken, represents the collective wisdom of a group of men expert in trust management, and their services cost an estate no more than it would pay an individual.

All our securities are officially inspected three times a year. We give bonds equal to twice the amount of the personal property of an estate we administer; and these bonds are backed by a guarantee of $4,500,000. An individual acting as executor or trustee rarely is required to give security.

DOROTHY BROOKE'S SCHOOL DAYS.

By Frances Campbell Sparhawk, author of "A Life of Lincoln for Boys," etc. With illustrations by Frank T. Merrill. 368 pages, 8vo., $1.50. Thomas Y. Crowell & Company, New York.

Dorothy Brooke, aged fifteen, enters her first year at a large boarding school, where her pronounced personality quickly wins her a close circle of friends, and some enemies. With the leaders in both camps the reader soon becomes personally acquainted, for the author has a remarkable faculty for delineating character and investing scenes with the color of truth. "Are you not writing of real people?" Miss Sparhawk has been asked repeatedly by advance readers of the book.

In a word, this is a spirited, wholesome girl's story, which every wide-awake girl ought to enjoy. While the fun and frolic is abundant, these are by no means all. The story gives an insight into growth of thought and power in the characters. Dorothy Brooke, the central figure, is by no means perfect; she does things wrong and unwise; but she is always honest and true and always interesting, full of noble impulses, which she carries out in a unique way. In the midst of her amusements and hard study, for she is ambitious, temptations to desert her ideals and standards come to her. Whether she yields, or listens, instead, to the voice appealing to her higher self, the reader will learn.

N. H. S.

Lawrence J. Riley of Waltham has been chosen coach of the Newton high school football team and he will begin upon his duties at once. Riley was selected from several prominent candidates and the choice is generally believed to be a good one.

Riley, who is known as "Doc," was one of the best players that ever represented Waltham on the gridiron. He was one of the early stars of Waltham High and his playing attracted the attention of college coaches.

Riley was induced to go to Holy Cross College and while there played half back on the Varsity team and was considered one of the fastest players during his college career both at Holy Cross and at Fordham, N. Y., colleges.

He has had some experience as a coach and a few years ago turned out a successful class team at Technology. Riley knows the game in all its departments and he will no doubt have good success with Newton high.

PRESS ASSOCIATION OUTING.

Members of the Suburban Press Association and lady friends were entertained last week by Captain Stearns Cushing and Mrs. Cushing at their home in Norwood. When the visitors arrived on special railway cars they found a tempting luncheon awaiting them on the lawn. Captain Cushing, who is a candidate for the Executive Council, in which body one of his ancestors sat generations ago, made a brief speech to the press representatives and their friends. During the afternoon the great plant of the Norwood Press, one of America's largest printing, electrotyping and binding establishments, was thrown open to the visitors by order of the host. The nearly three-quarters of a million books stored in the bindery gave the newspaper men a pretty good idea of the immensity of the plant, which can turn out about 13,000 books a day, mostly educational works. They were informed that three-fourths of the books used in the United States and several sold abroad are set in type, printed and bound in Norwood, and that the plant averages a carload shipment to New York every day.

LASELL SEMINARY.

On Thursday evening, September 30th, at 7.45 o'clock, Rev. Frederick M. Brooks will give a lecture on "Alaska of To-day," illustrated by stereopticon views, at Lasell Seminary.

Mr. Brooks travelled through Alaska in company with Ex-Gov. Brady, and so had unusual opportunity for seeing the country and making pictures for use in his lecture.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

A NEW BROOKLINE HOSPITAL.

The new hospital for animals, just opened at 46-48 Boylston street, Brookline, is not only a model of neatness, but one of the most commodious and finely equipped in this region. The proprietors are Edward T. Ryan, V. M. D., and Jesse F. Humphreys, V. M. D. Both are graduates of the University of Pennsylvania, where the last named was for a long time assistant surgeon. Dr. Ryan for the past two years has been in practice in the Back Bay. The building, a two and one-half story brick structure with cemented cellar, has been thoroughly renovated throughout, having very light and airy rooms, and has a most excellent system of heating. There are in the hospital private wards for cats and dogs, and one large and roomy ward where there are five ways of caring for these animals. Off this main room is a most complete operating room for small animals. Also proper provisions have been made for all surgical operations and treatment of horses and cattle where conditions at the owners' premises are unfavorable. The animals are all bedded on cedar antiseptic shavings, to keep away fleas, and everything about the establishment is conducted in the most approved hygienic manner. The runs, indoor and outdoor, for the exercise of animals, are most complete. The reception room and office, on the first floor, is fitted in a manner to attract and please the most fastidious. Having two surgeons ever on call, patrons may be sure to receive prompt and valuable service for both large and small animals without the possibility of waiting when a call is urgent. See Adv.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING.

The large number of classified advertisements ordered for publication in the Boston Evening Transcript, especially on Wednesday and Saturday, prompts them to express their appreciation of the good will of so many advertisers, and at the same time to ask the favor that they send their copy as early as possible, so that their announcements may be given the proper position and attention and by so doing insure them good results.

Editor of NEWTON GRAPHIC:

This marriage notice may interest some Newton people, and we should be glad to know if there are others who can claim "Apostle Elliot" as having officiated at their grandparents' wedding.

"Married Dec. 25th 1791. At Boston by Rev. John Elliot, Joshua Ellis, to Sally, (Sarah) Lewis, both of Boston."

Joshua Ellis was father of late Rowland Ellis of Newton Centre and grandfather of E. Corinna Wheeler, Newton Highlands.

Thos. W. Lawson installed nearly thirty "WINCHESTER" heaters at his farm, "DREAMWOLD." If "WINCHESTERS" can heat his house they will heat yours. They are made for steam or hot water by Smith & Thayer Co., 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

THEATRES

Boston Theatre—Only eight more performances of "The Gay Hussars" will be given at the Boston Theatre as Mr. Henry W. Savage's charming production of this sterling operetta begins the final week of its local engagement Monday night. The piece has scored a tremendous musical success in Boston and Mr. Henry W. Savage who produced the operetta has introduced to Boston theatregoers a number of new faces among the clever players with whom the piece is cast. The chief successes of the piece have been scored by Mr. Bobby North, Miss Anna Bussert, Miss Muriel Terry and Miss Florence Reid and much of the success of "The Gay Hussars" musically and dramatically is due to these artists. It is seldom that play patrons have an opportunity to witness a legitimate operetta and hence when such pieces as "The Merry Widow" and "The Gay Hussars" come, their very legitimacy and freedom from broad farcical affects make them novel and interesting to that element of the public who insist upon entertainment of class. The final matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday. Monday evening, October 4, comes the much heralded brilliantly spectacular show "The Three Twins" to the Boston Theatre, with the original company headed by Beale McCoy and Clifton Crawford. Seats go on sale next Thursday at 9 o'clock.

Park Theatre—Vacation's end and the return to Boston finds all the theatres open again. To make a first choice was difficult, indeed; so, I let myself out of the difficulty by letting me to the Park Theatre, to see "A Gentleman from Mississippi." The Tremont Theatre—"The Candy Shop" at the Tremont Theatre has scored a phenomenal hit. Rarely is it that with the first guns of a new season such a popular success is scored. But the new Charles Dillingham musical gaily had the city ringing with echoes of its triumph a few hours after its opening. After viewing the piece, easy to understand, is it, how New York crowded the Knickerbocker Theatre all last spring to enjoy its hurrahs of laughs, music and dances, and Chicago did likewise throughout the past summer. The Boston papers have never so extravagantly lauded a musical production. The Globe, in reviewing the performance declares that, "The Candy Shop" is rollicking, lively, amusing, and prettily staged; that, moreover, it possesses a host of scampers, vivacious girls and clever principals; that it is a happy go lucky, exuberant affair; and that the cast could be depended upon to carry any kind of piece to hilarious success; that the scenes are excellent. "The Candy Shop" scene being especially dazzling, when in full electric glare. Though the attraction's stay in Boston is announced for a brief season only, it is doubtful if playgoers will consent to release it soon.

American Music Hall—Next week at the American Music Hall, formerly the Orpheum Theatre, will see the Boston debut in vaudeville of that eminent Irish comedian Fiske O'Hara who will present a one act playlet by Crane Wilbur entitled "Captain Barry." In this he will be supported by a capable company of five players. The surrounding bill will include that great pair of fun makers Al Fields and Dave Lewis. That great European change artist, Caesar Rivoli, will be seen in Boston for the first time. He is known as "the man of

WORLD'S FOOD FAIR.

There is only one great World's Food Fair and Home Furnishing Exposition held in Boston and that is the one under the auspices of the Massachusetts Retail Grocers and Provision Dealers' Association, in the celebrated Mechanics Building on Huntington Avenue. Opening on Monday morning, September 27, it will be continued until Saturday night, October 30, and every day will be crowded with features of special interest to everyone concerned in the progress of New England, especially along lines of domestic economy. Representative firms in the food producing and house furnishing lines have secured about every inch of available space in all of the halls of this vast Mechanics Building. The entertainments will be of the highest class. Vessella's famous band of fifty selected instrumentalists, among them many leading soloists, and Belle Yeaton Renfrew's Bostonian Woman's Orchestra of a half hundred talented players will supply the principal features. The Tuskegee Jubilee Singers, from the Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Alabama, established by Booker T. Washington, will sing plantation melodies as no one else can sing them, and Charles Winter Wood will give brief addresses on the life and work of Booker T. Washington. Mr. Washington promises to attend sometime during the Exposition and speak to the people of New England. Among the other amusement features will be J. W. Gorman's Old Time Circus with the best of arena acts; Moving Picture theatres with illustrated songs. Plan to take at least one day in which to visit the World's Greatest Food Fair and Home Furnishing Exposition, to be held in Mechanics Building, Huntington Avenue, Boston, beginning at 10 A. M. Monday the 27th instant.

reason for my choice was that I had seen it already—not once, but twice—in New York. Why did I go again, you may ask. Well, to be frank, it was because of the girls—there are five of them, all beautiful creatures, with gowns that will make you gasp, as they did me. Also, I think, it was because of Douglas Fairbanks, who is, far and away, the handsomest, the spryest, and most graceful of the nation, and the cleverest young man now on the American stage. And, for a second "also," it was because of "Tom" Wise—it seems impossible to be reverent and formal and dignified and call him "Thomas A.," for he is so very, very, very nice that I am sure he appeals to everybody as he does to me—as a sort of old-fashioned uncle. These were some of the reasons why I passed up all the other plays in town, and went for the third time to see "A Gentleman from Mississippi." It is a cast just as splendid at the bottom and on the sides and through the middle and around the edges as it is at the top, with the beaming, unctuous Wise and the sprightly, magnetic Fairbanks. As to those girls, it is hard to begin with any one of them without seeming to be slighting the other four. And I intend seeing a great deal more of "A Gentleman from Mississippi," believe me! I am certain that Boston is going to go just wild over this play, as did both New York and Chicago.

Faithfully yours,

MARY DASCOMBE.

Hollis Street Theatre—No actress who has ever appeared on the Boston stage has been accorded such general praise as that which followed the English-speaking debut of Hedwig Reicher, known as "The Mary Anderson of Der Vaderland," at the Hollis Street Theatre last Monday night, in Martha Morton's thrilling play, "On the Eve," from the German of Leopold Kämpf. Miss Reicher came to Boston an utter stranger, yet in one single appearance won every critic by her remarkable exhibition of tragic acting in the role of Anna Kitzanskaya, the leader of the Russian Revolutionists. The critics are quoted as follows:—"A more deserving actress from abroad has graced the American stage, the equal of Nazimova in the passionate roles, and even more than her equal perhaps, in the tragedy. It is no wonder she is called the 'Mary Anderson of the Fatherland,' and also of such talent that Americans will keep her as their own."—Journal. "Hedwig Reicher is a powerful actress. She has beauty, charm of personality, a voice of rare quality and all the attributes of a successful tragedienne. Her performance was practically flawless. That she will be a popular acquisition to the stage in this country there is no disputing."—Globe. "On the Eve" will remain at the Hollis Street Theatre this week and next, after which the play will be taken to New York for a long run at the beautiful Hudson Theatre.

a hundred roles." The Phantastic Phantoms is one of the decided novelties of the season. It is a girl's act in black and white in which a half dozen girls and two or three men disport themselves to the delight of the audience. Another distinct novelty will be the boxing Kangaroo. With the kangaroo will appear the Gordon Brothers who will give their wonderful exhibition of bag punching. The balance of this remarkable bill will include the Sisters DePave in a dainty singing and banjo act, the Brittons in an extremely lively dancing act called "How's That?" Bon-Air Trio and other big features.

Kelth's Theatre—For two weeks, Peter, the man monkey has been the most talked about being in New England; in fact it is doubtful whether any attraction that has ever come to the theatre has caused more comment than this wonderful Simian who has been giving exhibitions at Kelth's. For next week another strong bill has been secured, one of the features being Tom Edwards, the famous English ventriloquist who will begin his engagement in this country presenting his latest achievements in this line. Will M. Cressy and Blanche Dayne, the New England character delineators, will remain for another week presenting that ever popular comedy "Town Talk Tonight." This act is so well known that it is needless to describe it. Another strong comedy feature will be James Harrigan, the tramp juggler, and others on the bill will be the Kellinos, Paul Stevens the wonderful pole balancer, Arthur Cameron who sings English nonsense songs, and others.

Castle Square Theatre—It is an interesting play of New England rural life that Mr. Craig and his stock company will give next week at the Castle Square Theatre. All those qualities which have made the popularity of "The Old Homestead," "Way Down East" and many others, are equally apparent in "Our New Minister," which has not been seen in Boston for a period of nearly ten years. Its plot involves the story of a wayward boy who returns in manhood to his old home to find his youthful acquaintances avoiding him because he has been in prison, and only the minister of the village and a few friends lending him a helping hand towards right living. The story of "Our New Minister" thus offers all possible opportunity for contrast of scene and character, and its three acts have in them the mingled humor and emotion that invariably helps to make a play entertaining. Many types of quaint character as it is seen in a New England town are included in the cast of this play, which will have the best of stage preparation under the guidance of William Parks. The stage settings, too, will bring to life the rural surroundings that we know so well, and all in all there will be not a little novelty, as well as something that is familiar, in Mr. Craig's production.
